STRUCTURE

Structure is tested in the second section on both the paper TOEFL test and the computer TOEFL test. This section consists of a number of multiple-choice questions that test your knowledge of the structure of English sentences and error recognition questions that test your knowledge of correct written expression. The paper and the computer structure sections are similar in the following ways:

- the types of questions
- the language skills tested

The paper and the computer structure sections are different in the following ways:

- the number of questions
- the amount of time
- the ordering of the questions
- the strategies
- the scoring

STRUCTURE ON THE PAPER TOEFL® TEST

On the paper TOEFL test, the second section is called Structure and Written Expression. This section consists of forty questions (though some tests may be longer). You have twenty-five minutes to complete the forty questions in this section.

There are two types of questions in the Structure and Written Expression section of the paper TOEFL test:

1. Structure (questions 1–15) consists of fifteen sentences in which part of each sentence has been replaced with a blank. Each sentence is followed by four answer choices. You must choose the answer that completes the sentence in a grammatically correct way.
2. Written Expression (questions 16–40) consists of twenty-five sentences in which four words or groups of words have been underlined. You must choose the underlined word or group of words that is not correct.

The questions on the paper test are presented in linear order. The fifteen structure questions (1–15) progress from easy to difficult. The twenty-five written expression questions (16–40) also progress from easy to difficult. Your score in this section is based on your answers to these forty questions.

GENERAL STRATEGIES
(Paper TOEFL® Test)

1. Be familiar with the directions. The directions on every paper TOEFL test are the same, so it is not necessary to spend time reading the directions carefully when you take the test. You should be completely familiar with the directions before the day of the test.
2. Begin with questions 1 through 15. Anticipate that questions 1 through 5 will be the easiest. Anticipate that questions 11 through 15 will be the most difficult. Do not spend too much time on questions 11 through 15. There will be easier questions that come later.
3. Continue with questions 16 through 40. Anticipate that questions 16 through 20 will be the easiest. Anticipate that questions 36 through 40 will be the most difficult. Do not spend too much time on questions 36 through 40.
4. If you have time, return to questions 11 through 15. You should spend extra time on questions 11 through 15 only after you spend all the time that you want on the easier questions that follow.
5. Guess to complete the section before time is up. There is no penalty for guessing, so it can only increase your score to guess the answers to questions that you do not have time to complete.

STRUCTURE ON THE COMPUTER TOEFL® TEST

On the computer TOEFL test, the second section is called the Structure section. This section consists of twenty to twenty-five questions. You have fifteen to twenty minutes to complete the questions in this section.

There are two types of questions in the Structure section of the computer TOEFL test:

1. Structure questions consist of sentences in which part of each sentence has been replaced with a blank. Each sentence is followed by four answer choices. You must choose the answer that completes the sentence in a grammatically correct way.
2. Written Expression questions consist of sentences in which four words or groups of words have been underlined. You must choose the underlined word or group of words that is not correct.

These two types of questions are intermixed in this section of the test.

The Structure section of the computer TOEFL test is computer adaptive. This means that the difficulty of the questions that you see is determined by how well you answer the questions. The section begins with a medium-level question, and the questions that follow will get easier or harder depending on whether or not you answer the questions correctly. Your answers to these questions count as only half of your structure score; the other half of your structure score comes from your answer to the writing question.

GENERAL STRATEGIES
(Computer TOEFL® Test)

1. Be familiar with the directions. The directions on every computer TOEFL test are the same, so it is not necessary to spend time reading the directions carefully when you take the test. You should be completely familiar with the directions before the day of the test.
2. Be familiar with computer adaptivity. This section of the computer TOEFL test is adaptive. This means that you will start with a medium-level question, and the difficulty of the questions will increase or decrease depending on whether or not your answers are correct.
3. Dismiss the directions as soon as they come up. The time starts when the directions come up. You should already be familiar with the directions, so you can click on Dismiss Directions as soon as it appears and save all your time for the questions.
4. Think carefully about a question before you answer it. You may not return to a question later in the test. You only have one opportunity to answer a given question.
5. Click on an answer on the computer screen when you have selected an answer. You may still change your mind at this point and click on a different answer.
6. Click on Next and then click on Confirm Answer to record your answer. After you click on the Confirm Answer button, you cannot go back and change your answer. A new question, either a structure question or a written expression question, will appear.
7. Do not spend too much time on a question you are unsure of. If you truly do not know the answer to a question, simply guess and go on. The computer will automatically move you into a level of questions that you can answer.
8. Be very careful not to make careless mistakes. If you carelessly choose an incorrect answer, the computer will move you to an easier level of questions. You will have to waste time working your way back to the appropriate level of questions.
9. Monitor the time carefully on the title bar of the computer screen. The title bar indicates the time remaining in the Structure section, the total number of questions in the section, and the current number.
10. Do not randomly guess at the end of the section to complete all the questions in the section before time is up. In a computer adaptive section such as Structure, random guessing to complete the section will only lower your score.

THE STRUCTURE QUESTIONS
(PAPER TOEFL® TEST AND COMPUTER TOEFL® TEST)

Multiple-choice questions that test your knowledge of the correct structure of English sentences appear on both the paper TOEFL test and the computer TOEFL test. Look at an example of a structure question from the paper TOEFL test.

Example from the Paper TOEFL® Test

A camel _____ 30 gallons of water in ten minutes.

(A) can drink
(B) it can drink
(C) a large drink of
(D) with a drink of

In this example, you should notice that the sentence has a subject camel but needs a verb. Answer (A) is the correct answer because it contains the verb can drink. Answer (B) is incorrect because it has the extra subject it, and answers (C) and (D) are incorrect because they do not have verbs. You should therefore choose answer (A).

Now, look at an example of a structure question from the computer TOEFL test.

Example from the Computer TOEFL® Test

_____, a firefighting specialist from Texas, has dealt with numerous major fires worldwide.

◯ Red Adair is ◯ For Read Adair
◯ Red Adair
◯ In Red Adair's life

In this example, you should notice that the sentence has a verb has dealt but needs a subject. The comma in front of the verb has indicates that specialist is an appositive and is not the subject. The third answer is the best answer because it contains the subject Red Adair. The first answer has an extra verb, and the second and fourth answers contain prepositional phrases, so these answers are incorrect. You should click on the third answer to this question.

PROCEDURES FOR THE STRUCTURE QUESTIONS
(Paper TOEFL® Test and Computer TOEFL® Test)

1. First, study the sentence. Your purpose is to determine what is needed to complete the sentence correctly.
2. Then study each answer based on how well it completes the sentence. Eliminate answers that do not complete the sentence correctly.
3. Do not try to eliminate incorrect answers by looking only at the answers. The incorrect answers are generally correct by themselves. The incorrect answers are generally incorrect only when used to complete the sentence.

Now, you should move on to the language skills. The following language skills will help you to implement these strategies and procedures in the structure questions of both the paper TOEFL test and the computer TOEFL test.

SENTENCES WITH ONE CLAUSE

Some sentences in English have just one subject and verb, and it is very important for you to find the subject and verb in these sentences. In some sentences it is easy to find the subject and verb. However, certain structures, such as objects of prepositions, appositives, and participles, can cause confusion in locating the subject and verb because each of these structures can look like a subject or verb. An object of the preposition or an appositive can be mistaken for a subject, while a participle can be mistaken for a verb.

Therefore, you should be able to do the following in sentences with one subject and verb: (1) be sure the sentence has a subject and a verb, (2) be careful of objects of prepositions and appositives when you are looking for the subject, and (3) be careful of present participles and past participles when you are looking for the verb.

SKILL 1: BE SURE THE SENTENCE HAS A SUBJECT AND A VERB

You know that a sentence in English should have a subject and a verb. The most common types of problems that you will encounter in structure questions on the TOEFL test have to do with subjects and verbs: perhaps the sentence is missing either the subject or the verb or both, or perhaps the sentence has an extra subject or verb.

Example 1 from the Paper and Computer TOEFL® Tests _____ was backed up for miles on the freeway.

(A) Yesterday
(B) In the morning
(C) Traffic
(D) Cars

In this example you should notice immediately that there is a verb was, but there is no subject. Answer (C) is the best answer because it contains the singular subject traffic that agrees with the singular verb was. Answer (A), yesterday, and answer (B), in the morning, are not subjects, so they are not correct. Although answer (D), cars, could be a subject, it is not correct because cars is plural and it does not agree with the singular verb was.

Example 2 from the Paper and Computer TOEFL® Tests

Engineers _____ for work on the new space program.

(A) necessary
(B) are needed
(C) hopefully
(D) next month

In this example you should notice immediately that the sentence has a subject engineers and that there is no verb. Because answer (B), are needed, is a verb, it is the best answer. Answers (A), (C), and (D) are not verbs, so they are not correct.

Example 3 from the Paper and Computer TOEFL® Tests

The boy _____ going to the movies with a friend.

(A) he is
(B) he always was
(C) is relaxing
(D) will be

This sentence has a subject boy and has part of a verb going; to be correct, some form of the verb be is needed to make the sentence complete. Answers (A) and (B) are incorrect because the sentence already has a subject boy and does not need the extra subject he. Answer (C) is incorrect because relaxing is an extra verb part that is unnecessary because of going. Answer (D) is the best answer; will be together with going is a complete verb.

The following chart outlines what you should remember about subjects and verbs:

SUBJECTS AND VERBS
A sentence in English must have at least one subject and one verb.

EXERCISE 1: Underline the subjects once and the verbs twice in each of the following sentences. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

I 1. Last week went fishing for trout at the nearby mountain lake.

C 2. A schedule of the day's events can be obtained at the front desk.

____ 3. A job on the day shift or the night shift at the plant available.

____ 4. The new computer program has provides a variety of helpful applications.

____ 5. The box can be opened only with a special screwdriver.

____ 6. The assigned text for history class it contains more than twenty chapters.

____ 7. The papers in the wastebasket should be emptied into the trash can outside.

____ 8. Departure before dawn on a boat in the middle of the harbor.

____ 9. Yesterday found an interesting article on pollution.

____ 10. The new machine is processes 50 percent more than the previous machine.

SKILL 2: BE CAREFUL OF OBJECTS OF PREPOSITIONS

An object of a preposition is a noun, pronoun, gerund or noun clause that comes after a preposition, such as in, at, of, to, by, behind, on, and so on, to form a prepositional phrase.

(After his exams) Tom will take a trip (by boat).

This sentence contains two objects of prepositions. Exams is the object of the preposition after, and boat is the object of the preposition by.

An object of a preposition can cause confusion in structure questions on the TOEFL test because it can be mistaken for the subject of a sentence.

Example from the Paper and Computer TOEFL® Tests

With his friend __B__ found the movie theater.

(A) has
(B) he
(C) later
(D) when

In this example you should look first for the subject and the verb. You should notice the verb found and should also notice that there is no subject. Do not think that friend is the subject; friend is the object of the preposition with, and one noun cannot be both a subject and an object at the same time. Because a subject is needed in this sentence, answer (B), he, is the best answer. Answers (A), (C), and (D) are not correct because they cannot be subjects.

The following chart outlines the key information that you should remember about objects of prepositions:

OBJECTS OF PREPOSITIONS
A preposition is followed by a noun, pronoun, gerund or noun clause that is called an object of the preposition. If a word is an object of a preposition, it is not the subject.

NOTE: A lengthy list of prepositions and practice in recognizing prepositions can be found in Appendix D at the back of the text. You may want to complete these exercises before continuing with Exercise 2.

EXERCISE 2: Each of the following sentences contains one or more prepositional phrases. Underline the subjects once and the verbs twice. Circle the prepositional phrases that come before the verb. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

__C__ 1. The interviews (by radio broadcasters) were carried live by the station.

__I__ 2. (In the last possible moment) (before takeoff) took his seat in the airplane.

_____ 3. At the neighborhood flower shop, flowers in quantities of a dozen or a half dozen can be delivered for free.

_____ 4. The progressive reading methods at this school are given credit for the improved test scores.

_____ 5. For the last three years at various hospitals in the county has been practicing medicine.

_____ 6. In the past a career in politics was not considered acceptable in some circles.

_____ 7. Shopping in the downtown area of the city it has improved a lot in recent years.

____ 8. At the building site the carpenters with the most experience were given the most intricate work.

____ 9. For the fever and headache took two aspirin tablets.

____ 10. The report with complete documentation was delivered at the conference.

SKILL 3: BE CAREFUL OF APPOSITIVES

Appositives can cause confusion in structure questions on the TOEFL test because an appositive can be mistaken for the subject of a sentence. An appositive is a noun that comes before or after another noun and has the same meaning.

Sally, the best student in the class, got an A on the exam.

In this example Sally is the subject of the sentence and the best student in the class can easily be recognized as an appositive phrase because of the noun student and because of the commas. The sentence says that Sally and the best student in the class are the same person. Note that if you leave out the appositive phrase, the sentence still makes sense (Sally got an A on the exam).

The following example shows how an appositive can be confused with the subject of a sentence in structure questions on the TOEFL test.

Example 1 from the Paper and Computer TOEFL® Tests

_____, George, is attending the lecture.

(A) Right now
(B) Happily
(C) Because of the time
(D) My friend

In this example you should recognize from the commas that George is not the subject of the sentence. George is an appositive. Because this sentence still needs a subject, the best answer is (D), my friend. Answers (A), (B), and (C) are incorrect because they are not subjects.

The next example shows that an appositive does not always come after the subject; an appositive can also come at the beginning of the sentence.

Example 2 from the Paper and Computer TOEFL® Tests

_____, Sarah rarely misses her basketball shots.

(A) An excellent basketball player
(B) An excellent basketball player is
(C) Sarah is an excellent basketball player
(D) Her excellent basketball play

In this example you can tell that Sarah is the subject and misses is the verb because there is no comma separating them. In the space you should put an appositive for Sarah, and Sarah is an excellent basketball player, so answer (A) is the best answer. Answers (B) and (C) are not correct because they each contain the verb is, and an appositive does not need a verb. Answer (D) contains a noun, play, that could possibly be an appositive, but play is not the same as Sarah, so this answer is not correct.

The following chart outlines the key information that you should remember about appositives:

APPOSITIVES
An appositive is a noun that comes before or after another noun and is generally set off from the noun with commas. If a word is an appositive, it is not the subject. The following appositive structures are both possible in English:
S, APP, V Tom, a really good mechanic, is fixing the car.
APP, S V A really good mechanic, Tom is fixing the car.

EXERCISE 3: Each of the following sentences contains an appositive. Underline the subjects once and the verbs twice. Circle the appositive phrases. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. (The son of the previous owner,) the new owner is undertaking some fairly broad changes in management policy.

I 2. Last semester, (a friend,) graduated cum laude from the university.

____ 3. Valentine's Day, February 14, is a special holiday for sweethearts.

____ 4. At long last, the chief executive officer, has decided to step down.

____ 5. Tonight's supper, leftovers from last night, did not taste any better tonight than last night.

____ 6. The only entrance to the closet, the door was kept locked at all times.

____ 7. In the cold of winter, a wall heating unit, would not turn on.

____ 8. The new tile pattern, yellow flowers on a white background, really brightens up the room.

____ 9. The high-powered computer the most powerful machine of its type, was finally readied for use.

____ 10. A longtime friend and confidant, the psychologist was often invited over for Sunday dinner.

SKILL 4: BE CAREFUL OF PRESENT PARTICIPLES

A present participle is the -ing form of the verb (talking, playing). In structure questions on the TOEFL test, a present participle can cause confusion because it can be either a part of the verb or an adjective. It is part of the verb when it is preceded by some form of the verb be.

The man is talking to his friend.
VERB

In this sentence talking is part of the verb because it is accompanied by is.

A present participle is an adjective when it is not accompanied by some form of the verb be.

The man talking to his friend has a beard.
ADJECTIVE

In this sentence talking is an adjective and not part of the verb because it is not accompanied by some form of be. The verb in this sentence is has.

The following example shows how a present participle can be confused with the verb in structure questions on the TOEFL test.

Example from the Paper and Computer TOEFL® Tests

The child _____ playing in the yard is my son.

(A) now
(B) is
(C) he
(D) was

In this example, if you look at only the first words of the sentence, it appears that child is the subject and playing is part of the verb. If you think that playing is part of the verb, you might choose answer (B), is, or answer (D), was, to complete the verb. However, these two answers are incorrect because playing is not part of the verb. You should recognize that playing is a participial adjective rather than a verb because there is another verb in the sentence is. In this sentence there is a complete subject child and a complete verb is, so this sentence does not need another subject or verb. The best answer here is (A).

The following chart outlines what you should remember about present participles:

PRESENT PARTICIPLES
A present participle is the -ing form of the verb. The present participle can be (1) part of the verb or (2) an adjective. It is part of the verb when it is accompanied by some form of the verb be. It is an adjective when it is not accompanied by some form of the verb be. 1. The boy is standing in the corner. 2. The boy standing in the corner was naughty.

EXERCISE 4: Each of the following sentences contains one or more present participles. Underline the subjects once and the verbs twice. Circle the present participles and label them as adjectives or verbs. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. The companies (offering) the lowest prices will have the most customers.
ADJ.

I 2. Those travelers are (completing) their trip on Delta should report to Gate Three.
VERB

_____ 3. The artisans were demonstrating various handicrafts at booths throughout the fair.

_____ 4. The fraternities are giving the wildest parties attract the most new pledges.

_____ 5. The first team winning four games is awarded the championship.

_____ 6. The speaker was trying to make his point was often interrupted vociferously.

_____ 7. The fruits were rotting because of the moisture in the crates carrying them to market.

_____ 8. Any students desiring official transcripts should complete the appropriate form.

_____ 9. The advertisements were announcing the half-day sale received a lot of attention.

_____ 10. The spices flavoring the meal were quite distinctive.

SKILL 5: BE CAREFUL OF PAST PARTICIPLES

Past participles can cause confusion in structure questions on the TOEFL test because a past participle can be either an adjective or a part of a verb. The past participle is the form of the verb that appears with have or be. It often ends in -ed, but there are also many irregular past participles in English. (See Appendix F for a list of irregular past participles.)

The family has purchased a television.
VERB

The poem was written by Paul.
VERB

In the first sentence the past participle purchased is part of the verb because it is accompanied by has. In the second sentence the past participle written is part of the verb because it is accompanied by was.

A past participle is an adjective when it is not accompanied by some form of be or have.

The television purchased yesterday was expensive.
ADJECTIVE

The poem written by Paul appeared in the magazine.
ADJECTIVE

In the first sentence purchased is an adjective rather than a verb because it is not accompanied by a form of be or have (and there is a verb, was, later in the sentence). In the second sentence written is an adjective rather than a verb because it is not accompanied by a form of be or have (and there is a verb, appeared, later in the sentence).

The following example shows how a past participle can be confused with the verb in structure questions on the TOEFL test.

Example from the Paper and Computer TOEFL® Tests

The packages _____ mailed at the post office will arrive Monday.

(A) have
(B) were
(C) them
(D) just

In this example, if you look only at the first few words of the sentence, it appears that packages is the subject and mailed is either a complete verb or a past participle that needs a helping verb. But if you look further in the sentence, you will see that the verb is will arrive. You will then recognize that mailed is a participial adjective and is therefore not part of the verb. Answers (A) and (B) are incorrect because mailed is an adjective and does not need a helping verb such as have or were. Answer (C) is incorrect because there is no need for the object them. Answer (D) is the best answer to this question.

The following chart outlines what you should remember about past participles:

PAST PARTICIPLES
A past participle often ends in -ed, but there are also many irregular past participles. For many verbs, including -ed verbs, the simple past and the past participle are the same and can be easily confused. The -ed form of the verb can be (1) the simple past, (2) the past participle of a verb, or (3) an adjective. 1. She painted this picture. 2. She has painted this picture. 3. The picture painted by Karen is now in a museum.

EXERCISE 5: Each of the following sentences contains one or more past participles. Underline the subjects once and the verbs twice. Circle the past participles and label them as adjectives or verbs. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

I 1. The money was (offered) by the client was not (accepted.)
VERB VERB

C 2. The car (listed) in the advertisement had already (stalled.)
ADJ. VERB

_____ 3. The chapters were taught by the professor this morning will be on next week's exam.

_____ 4. The loaves of bread were baked in a brick oven at a low temperature for many hours.

_____ 5. The ports were reached by the sailors were under the control of a foreign nation.

_____ 6. Those suspected in the string of robberies were arrested by the police.

_____ 7. The pizza is served in this restaurant is the tastiest in the county.

_____ 8. The courses are listed on the second page of the brochure have several prerequisites.

_____ 9. All the tenants were invited to the Independence Day barbecue at the apartment complex.

_____ 10. Any bills paid by the first of the month will be credited to your account by the next day.

EXERCISE (Skills 1–5): Underline the subjects once and the verbs twice in each of the following sentences. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

_____ 1. For three weeks at the beginning of the semester students with fewer than the maximum number of units can add additional courses.

_____ 2. On her lunch hour went to a nearby department store to purchase a wedding gift.

_____ 3. The fir trees were grown for the holiday season were harvested in November.

_____ 4. In the grove the overripe oranges were falling on the ground.

_____ 5. The papers being delivered at 4:00 will contain the announcement of the president's resignation.

_____ 6. A specialty shop with various blends from around the world in the shopping mall.

_____ 7. The portraits exhibited in the Houston Museum last month are now on display in Dallas.

_____ 8. With a sudden jerk of his hand threw the ball across the field to one of the other players.

_____ 9. Construction of the housing development it will be underway by the first of the month.

_____ 10. Those applicants returning their completed forms at the earliest date have the highest priority.

TOEFL EXERCISE (Skills 1–5): Choose the letter of the word or group of words that best completes the sentence.

1. The North Platte River _____ from Wyoming into Nebraska.
   (A) it flowed
   (B) flows
   (C) flowing
   (D) with flowing water

   (C) it was photography
   (D) photography was

10. A computerized map of the freeways using information gathered by sensors embedded in the pavement _____ on a local cable channel during rush hours.

    (A) airs
    (B) airing
    (C) air
    (D) to air

SENTENCES WITH MULTIPLE CLAUSES

Many sentences in English have more than one clause. (A clause is a group of words containing a subject and a verb.) Whenever you find a sentence on the TOEFL test with more than one clause, you need to make sure that every subject has a verb and every verb has a subject. Next you need to check that the various clauses in the sentence are correctly joined. There are various ways to join clauses in English. Certain patterns appear frequently in English and on the TOEFL test. You should be very familiar with these patterns.

SKILL 6: USE COORDINATE CONNECTORS CORRECTLY

When you have two clauses in an English sentence, you must connect the two clauses correctly. One way to connect two clauses is to use and, but, or, so, or yet between the clauses.

Tom is singing, and Paul is dancing.

Tom is tall, but Paul is short.

Tom must write the letter, or Paul will do it.

Tom told a joke, so Paul laughed.

Tom is tired, yet he is not going to sleep.

In each of these examples, there are two clauses that are correctly joined with a coordinate conjunction and, but, or, so, or yet, and a comma (,).

The following example shows how this sentence pattern could be tested in structure questions on the TOEFL test.

Example from the Paper and Computer TOEFL® Tests

A power failure occurred, _____ the lamps went out.

(A) then
(B) so
(C) later
(D) next

In this example you should notice quickly that there are two clauses, a power failure occurred and the lamps went out. This sentence needs a connector to join the two clauses. Then, later, and next are not connectors, so answers (A), (C), and (D) are not correct. The best answer is answer (B) because so can connect two clauses.

The following chart lists the coordinate connectors and the sentence pattern used with them:

COORDINATE CONNECTORS
and	but	or	so	yet
S V,	coordinate connector		S V
She laughed,	but		she wanted to cry.

EXERCISE 6: Each of the following sentences contains more than one clause. Underline the subjects once and the verbs twice. Circle the connectors. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. The software should be used on a laptop computer, (and) this computer is a laptop.

I 2. The rain clouds can be seen in the distance, (but) no has fallen.

_____ 3. They are trying to sell their house, it has been on the market for two months.

_____ 4. So the quality of the print was not good, I changed the typewriter ribbon.

_____ 5. The lifeguard will warn you about the riptides, or she may require you to get out of the water.

_____ 6. You should have finished the work yesterday, yet is not close to being finished today.

____ 7. The phone rang again and again, so the receptionist was not able to get much work done.

____ 8. The missing wallet was found, but the cash and credit cards had been removed.

____ 9. Or you can drive your car for another 2,000 miles, you can get it fixed.

____ 10. The chemist was awarded the Nobel Prize, he flew to Europe to accept it.

SKILL 7: USE ADVERB TIME AND CAUSE CONNECTORS CORRECTLY

Sentences with adverb clauses have two basic patterns in English. Study the clauses and connectors in the following sentences:

I will sign the check before you leave.

Before you leave, I will sign the check.

In each of these examples, there are two clauses: you leave and I will sign the check, and the clause you leave is an adverb time clause because it is introduced with the connector before. In the first example the connector before comes in the middle of the sentence, and no comma (,) is used. In the second example the connector before comes at the beginning of the sentence. In this pattern, when the connector comes at the beginning of the sentence, a comma (,) is required in the middle of the sentence.

The following example shows how this sentence pattern could be tested in structure questions on the TOEFL test.

Example from the Paper and Computer TOEFL® Tests _____ was late, I missed the appointment.

(A) I
(B) Because
(C) The train
(D) Since he

In this example you should recognize easily that there is a verb, was, that needs a subject. There is also another clause, I missed the appointment. If you choose answer (A) or answer (C), you will have a subject for the verb was, but you will not have a connector to join the two clauses. Because you need a connector to join two clauses, answers (A) and (C) are incorrect. Answer (B) is incorrect because there is no subject for the verb was. Answer (D) is the best answer because there is a subject, he, for the verb was, and there is a connector, since, to join the two clauses.

The following chart lists adverb time and cause connectors and the sentence patterns used with them:

ADVERB TIME AND CAUSE CONNECTORS
TIME				CAUSE
after	as soon as	once	when	as	now that as	before	since	whenever	because	since as long as	by the time	until	while	inasmuch as
S V		adverb connector		S V
Teresa went inside		because		it was raining.
adverb connector	S V,			S V
Because	it was raining,			Teresa went inside.

EXERCISE 7: Each of the following sentences contains more than one clause. Underline the subjects once and the verbs twice. Circle the connectors. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. (Since) the bank closes in less than an hour, the deposits need to be tallied immediately.

I 2. Their backgrounds are thoroughly investigated (before) are admitted to the organization.

___ 3. The citizens are becoming more and more incensed about traffic accidents whenever the accidents occur at that intersection.

___ 4. The ground had been prepared, the seedlings were carefully planted.

___ 5. We can start the conference now that all the participants have arrived.

___ 6. The building quite vulnerable to damage until the storm windows are installed.

___ 7. Once the address label for the package is typed, can be sent to the mail room.

___ 8. Because the recent change in work shifts was not posted, several workers missed their shifts.

___ 9. The mother is going to be quite upset with her son as long as he misbehaves so much.

___ 10. Inasmuch as all the votes have not yet been counted the outcome of the election cannot be announced.

SKILL 8: USE OTHER ADVERB CONNECTORS CORRECTLY

Adverb clauses can express the ideas of time and cause, as you saw in Skill 7; adverb clauses can also express a number of other ideas, such as contrast, condition, manner, and place. Because these clauses are adverb clauses, they have the same structure as the time and cause clauses in Skill 7. Study the following examples:

I will leave at 7:00 if I am ready.

Although I was late, I managed to catch the train.

In each of these examples, there are two clauses that are correctly joined with adverb connectors. In the first sentence, the adverb condition connector if comes in the middle of the sentence. In the second sentence, the adverb contrast connector although comes at the beginning of the sentence, and a comma (,) is used in the middle of the sentence.

The following example shows a way that this sentence pattern can be tested in the Structure section of the TOEFL test.

Example from the Paper and Computer TOEFL® Tests

You will get a good grade on the exam provided _____.

(A) studying
(B) study
(C) to study
(D) you study

In this example you should quickly notice the adverb condition connector provided. This connector comes in the middle of the sentence; because it is a connector, it must be followed by a subject and a verb. The best answer to this question is answer (D), which contains the subject and verb you study.

The following chart lists adverb contrast, condition, manner, and place connectors and the sentence patterns used with them:

OTHER ADVERB CONNECTORS
CONDITION	CONTRAST	MANNER	PLACE
if in case provided providing unless whether	although even though though while whereas	as in that	where wherever
S V adverb connector S V Bob went to school even though he felt sick.
adverb connector S V, S V Even though Bob felt sick, he went to school.
NOTE: A comma is often used in the middle of the sentence with a contrast connector. The Smith family arrived at 2:00, while the Jones family arrived an hour later.

EXERCISE 8: Each of the following sentences contains more than one clause. Underline the subjects once and the verbs twice. Circle the connectors. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. It is impossible to enter that program (if) you lack experience as a teacher.

I 2. The commandant left strict orders about the passes, several soldiers left the post anyway.

____ 3. No one is admitted to the academy unless he or she the education requirements.

____ 4. While most students turned the assignment in on time, a few asked for an extension.

____ 5. I will take you wherever need to go to complete the registration procedures.

____ 6. I will wait here in the airport with you whether the plane leaves on time or not.

____ 7. Providing the envelope is postmarked by this Friday, your application still acceptable.

____ 8. As the nurse already explained all visitors must leave the hospital room now.

____ 9. This exam will be more difficult than usual in that it covers two chapters instead of one.

____ 10. Though snow had been falling all day long, everyone got to the church on time for the wedding.

EXERCISE (Skills 6–8): Underline the subjects once and the verbs twice in each of the following sentences. Circle the connectors. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

_____ 1. Until the registrar makes a decision about your status, you must stay in an unclassified category.

_____ 2. Or the bills can be paid by mail by the first of the month.

_____ 3. The parents left a phone number with the baby-sitter in case a problem with the children.

_____ 4. The furniture will be delivered as soon it is paid for.

_____ 5. Whenever you want to hold the meeting, we will schedule it.

_____ 6. The government was overthrown in a revolution, the king has not returned to his homeland.

_____ 7. Whereas most of the documents are complete, this form still needs to be notarized.

_____ 8. Trash will be collected in the morning, so you should put the trash cans out tonight.

_____ 9. It is impossible for the airplane to take off while is snowing so hard.

_____ 10. We did not go out to dinner tonight even though I would have preferred not to cook.

TOEFL EXERCISE (Skills 6–8): Choose the letter of the word or group of words that best completes the sentence.

MORE SENTENCES WITH MULTIPLE CLAUSES

As we saw in Skills 6 through 8, many sentences in English have more than one clause. In Skills 9 through 12, we will see more patterns for connecting the clauses in sentences with multiple clauses. Because these patterns appear frequently in English and on the TOEFL test, you should be very familiar with them.

SKILL 9: USE NOUN CLAUSE CONNECTORS CORRECTLY

A noun clause is a clause that functions as a noun; because the noun clause is a noun, it is used in a sentence as either an object of a verb, an object of a preposition, or the subject of the sentence.

I know [when he will arrive.]
NOUN CLAUSE AS OBJECT OF VERB

I am concerned about [when he will arrive.]
NOUN CLAUSE AS OBJECT OF PREPOSITION

[When he will arrive] is not important.
NOUN CLAUSE AS SUBJECT

In the first example there are two clauses, I know and he will arrive. These two clauses are joined with the connector when. When changes the clause he will arrive into a noun clause that functions as the object of the verb know.

In the second example the two clauses I am concerned and he will arrive are also joined by the connector when. When changes the clause he will arrive into a noun clause that functions as the object of the preposition about.

The third example is more difficult. In this example there are two clauses, but they are a little harder to recognize. He will arrive is one of the clauses, and the connector when changes it into a noun clause that functions as the subject of the sentence. The other clause has the noun clause when he will arrive as its subject and is as its verb.

The following example shows how these sentence patterns could be tested in structure questions on the TOEFL test.

Example from the Paper and Computer TOEFL® Tests

_____ was late caused many problems.

(A) That he
(B) The driver
(C) There
(D) Because

In this example there are two verbs, was and caused, and each of these verbs needs a subject. Answer (B) is wrong because the driver is one subject, and two subjects are needed. Answers (C) and (D) are incorrect because there and because are not subjects. The best answer is answer (A). If you choose answer (A), the completed sentence would be: That he was late caused many problems. In this sentence he is the subject of the verb was, and the noun clause that he was late is the subject of the verb caused.

The following chart lists the noun clause connectors and the sentence patterns used with them:

NOUN CLAUSE CONNECTORS
• what, when, where, why, how	• whatever, whenever	• whether, if	• that

NOUN CLAUSE AS OBJECT

S V (noun connector) S V

I know what you did.

NOUN CLAUSE AS SUBJECT

(noun connector) S V V

What you did was wrong.

EXERCISE 9: Each of the following sentences contains more than one clause. Underline the subjects once and the verbs twice. Circle the connectors. Put boxes around the noun clauses. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. [(When) the season starts] is determined by the weather.

I 2. The manual [(how) the device should be built.]

____ 3. The schedule indicated if the teams would be playing in the final game.

____ 4. He refused to enter a plea could not be determined by the lawyer.

____ 5. Talked about where we should go for lunch.

____ 6. Why the condition of the patient deteriorated so rapidly it was not explained.

____ 7. Whether or not the new office would be built was to be determined at the meeting.

____ 8. That the professor has not yet decided when the paper is due.

____ 9. The contract will be awarded is the question to be answered at the meeting.

____ 10. He always talked with whomever he pleased and did whatever he wanted.

SKILL 10: USE NOUN CLAUSE CONNECTOR/SUBJECTS CORRECTLY

In Skill 9 we saw that noun clause connectors were used to introduce noun subject clauses or noun object clauses. In Skill 10 we will see that in some cases a noun clause connector is not just a connector; a noun clause connector can also be the subject of the clause at the same time.

I do not know [what is] in the box.
NOUN CLAUSE AS OBJECT OF VERB

We are concerned about [who will do the work.]
NOUN CLAUSE AS OBJECT OF PREPOSITION

[Whoever is coming to the party] must bring a gift.
NOUN CLAUSE AS SUBJECT

In the first example there are two clauses: I do not know and what is in the box. These two clauses are joined by the connector what. It is important to understand that in this sentence the word what serves two functions. It is both the subject of the verb is and the connector that joins the two clauses.

In the second example there are two clauses. In the first clause we is the subject of are. In the second clause who is the subject of will do. Who also serves as the connector that joins the two clauses. The noun clause who will do the work functions as the object of the preposition about.

In the last example there are also two clauses: whoever is the subject of the verb is coming, and the noun clause whoever is coming to the party is the subject of must bring. The word whoever serves two functions in the sentence: It is the subject of the verb is coming, and it is the connector that joins the two clauses.

The following example shows how this sentence pattern could be tested in structure questions on the TOEFL test.

Example from the Paper and Computer TOEFL® Tests _____ was on television made me angry.

(A) It
(B) The story
(C) What
(D) When

In this example you should notice immediately that there are two verbs, was and made, and each of those verbs needs a subject. Answers (A) and (B) are incorrect because it and the story cannot be the subject for both was and made at the same time. Answer (D) is incorrect because when is not a subject. In answer (C) what serves as both the subject of the verb was and the connector that joins the two clauses together; the noun clause what was on television is the subject of the verb made. Answer (C) is therefore the best answer.

The following chart lists the noun clause connector/subjects and the sentence patterns used with them:

NOUN CLAUSE CONNECTOR/SUBJECTS who	what	which
whoever	whatever	whichever

NOUN CLAUSE AS OBJECT

S	V	noun connector/subject	V
I know		what	happened.

NOUN CLAUSE AS SUBJECT

noun connector/subject	V	V
What	happened	was great.

EXERCISE 10: Each of the following sentences contains more than one clause. Underline the subjects once and the verbs twice. Circle the connectors. Put boxes around the noun clauses. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. The game show contestant was able to respond to (whatever) was asked.

I 2. You should find out (which) the best physics department.

_____ 3. The employee was unhappy about what was added to his job description.

_____ 4. Whoever wants to take the desert tour during spring break signing up at the office.

_____ 5. The motorist was unable to discover who he had struck his car.

_____ 6. The voters should elect whichever of the candidates seems best to them.

_____ 7. It was difficult to distinguish between what was on sale and what was merely on display.

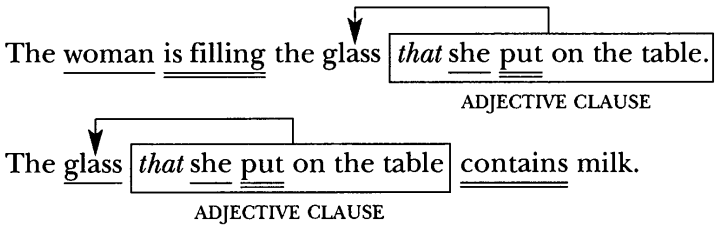

_____ 8. You should buy whatever the cheapest and most durable.

_____ 9. What was written in the letter angered him beyond belief.

_____ 10. You can spend your time with whoever important to you.

SKILL 11: USE ADJECTIVE CLAUSE CONNECTORS CORRECTLY

An adjective clause is a clause that describes a noun. Because the clause is an adjective, it is positioned directly after the noun that it describes.

In the first example there are two clauses: woman is the subject of the verb is filling, and she is the subject of the verb put. That is the adjective clause connector that joins these two clauses, and the adjective clause that she put on the table describes the noun glass.

In the second example there are also two clauses: glass is the subject of the verb contains, and she is the subject of the verb put. In this sentence also, that is the adjective clause connector that joins these two clauses, and the adjective clause that she put on the table describes the noun glass.

The following example shows how these sentence patterns could be tested in structure questions on the TOEFL test.

Example from the Paper and Computer TOEFL® Tests

The gift _____ selected for the bride was rather expensive.

(A) because
(B) was
(C) since
(D) which we

In this example you should notice quickly that there are two clauses: gift is the subject of the verb was, and the verb selected needs a subject. Because there are two clauses, a connector is also needed. Answers (A) and (C) have connectors, but there are no subjects, so these answers are not correct. Answer (B) changes selected into a passive verb; in this case the sentence would have one subject and two verbs, so answer (B) is not correct. The best answer to this question is answer (D). The correct sentence should say: The gift which we selected for the bride was rather expensive. In this sentence gift is the subject of the verb was, we is the subject of the verb selected, and the connector which joins these two clauses.

The following chart lists the adjective clause connectors and the sentence patterns used with them:

ADJECTIVE CLAUSE CONNECTORS
whom (for people)	which (for things)	that (for people or things)
S V	adjective connector S V
I liked the book	which	you recommended.
S	adjective connector S V	V
The book	which	you recommended was interesting.
NOTE: The adjective connectors can be omitted. This omission is very common in spoken English or in casual written English. It is not as common in formal English or in structure questions on the TOEFL test.

EXERCISE 11: Each of the following sentences contains more than one clause. Underline the subjects once and the verbs twice. Circle the connectors. Put boxes around the adjective clauses. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. It is important to fill out the form in the way (that) you have been instructed.

I 2. The car (which) I have been driving for five years for sale at a really good price.

____ 3. I just finished reading the novel whom the professor suggested for my book report.

____ 4. The plane that he was scheduled to take to Hawaii was delayed.

____ 5. The movie which we watched on cable last night it was really frightening.

____ 6. I made an appointment with the doctor whom you recommended.

____ 7. The enthusiasm with which he greeted me made me feel welcome.

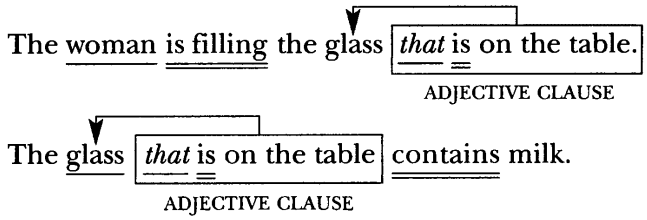

____ 8. The story that you told me about Bob.

____ 9. The men with whom were having the discussion did not seem very friendly.

____ 10. I'm not really sure about taking part in the plans that we made last night.

SKILL 12: USE ADJECTIVE CLAUSE CONNECTOR/SUBJECTS CORRECTLY

In Skill 11 we saw that adjective clause connectors were used to introduce clauses that describe nouns. In Skill 12 we will see that in some cases an adjective clause connector is not just a connector; an adjective clause connector can also be the subject of the clause at the same time.

In the first example there are two clauses: woman is the subject of the verb is filling, and that is the subject of the verb is. These two clauses are joined with the connector that. Notice that in this example the word that serves two functions at the same time: it is the subject of the verb is, and it is the connector that joins the two clauses. The adjective clause that is on the table describes the noun glass.

In the second example, there are also two clauses: glass is the subject of the verb contains, and that is the subject of the verb is. In this example that also serves two functions: it is the subject of the verb is, and it is the connector that joins the two clauses. Because that is on the table is an adjective clause describing the noun glass, it directly follows glass.

The following example shows how these sentence patterns could be tested in structure questions on the TOEFL test.

Example from the Paper and Computer TOEFL® Tests _____ is on the table has four sections.

(A) The notebook
(B) The notebook which
(C) Because the notebook
(D) In the notebook

In this example you should notice immediately that the sentence has two verbs, is and has, and each of them needs a subject. You know that table is not a subject because it follows the preposition on; table is the object of the preposition. The only answer that has two subjects is answer (B), so answer (B) is the correct answer. The correct sentence should say: The notebook which is on the table has four sections. In this sentence notebook is the subject of the verb has, and which is the subject of the verb is. Which is also the connector that joins the two clauses.

The following chart lists the adjective clause connector/subjects and the sentence patterns used with them:

ADJECTIVE CLAUSE CONNECTOR/SUBJECTS
who (for people)	which (for things)	that (for people or things)
S V She needs a secretary	adjective connector/subject V who	types fast.
S A secretary	adjective connector/subject V who	V types fast is invaluable.

EXERCISE 12: Each of the following sentences contains more than one clause. Underline the subjects once and the verbs twice. Circle the connectors. Put boxes around the adjective clauses. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. The ice cream (that) is served in the restaurant has a smooth, creamy texture.

I 2. The cars are trying to enter the freeway system are lined up for blocks.

____ 3. I have great respect for everyone who on the Dean's List.

____ 4. It is going to be very difficult to work with the man which just began working here.

SENTENCES WITH REDUCED CLAUSES

It is possible in English for a clause to appear in a complete form or in a reduced form.

My friend should be on the train which is arriving at the station now.

Although it was not really difficult, the exam took a lot of time.

The first sentence shows an adjective clause in its complete form, which is arriving at the station now, and in its reduced form, arriving at the station now. The second sentence shows an adverb clause in its complete form, although it was not really difficult, and its reduced form, although not really difficult.

The two types of clauses that can reduce in English are: (1) adjective clauses and (2) adverb clauses. It is important to become familiar with these reduced clauses because they appear frequently on the TOEFL test.

SKILL 13: USE REDUCED ADJECTIVE CLAUSES CORRECTLY

Adjective clauses can appear in a reduced form. In the reduced form, the adjective clause connector and the be-verb that directly follow it are omitted.

The woman who is waving to us is the tour guide.

The letter which was written last week arrived today.

The pitcher that is on the table is full of iced tea.

Each of these sentences may be used in the complete form or in the reduced form. In the reduced form the connector who, which, or that is omitted along with the be-verb is or was.

If there is no be-verb in the adjective clause, it is still possible to have a reduced form. When there is no be-verb in the adjective clause, the connector is omitted and the verb is changed into the -ing form.

I don't understand the article which appears in today's paper. → appearing

In this example there is no be-verb in the adjective clause which appears in today's paper, so the connector which is omitted and the main verb appears is changed to the -ing form appearing.

It should be noted that not all adjective clauses can appear in a reduced form. An adjective clause can appear in a reduced form only if the adjective clause connector is followed directly by a verb. In other words, an adjective clause can only be reduced if the connector is also a subject.

The woman that I just met is the tour guide. (does not reduce)

The letter which you sent me arrived yesterday. (does not reduce)

In these two examples the adjective clauses cannot be reduced because the adjective clause connectors that and which are not directly followed by verbs; that is directly followed by the subject I, and which is directly followed by the subject you.

A final point to note is that some adjective clauses are set off from the rest of the sentence with commas, and these adjective clauses can also be reduced. In addition, when an adjective clause is set off with commas, the reduced adjective clause can appear at the front of the sentence.

The White House, which is located in Washington, is the home of the president.
The White House, located in Washington, is the home of the president.
Located in Washington, the White House is the home of the president.

The president, who is now preparing to give a speech, is meeting with his advisors.
The president, now preparing to give a speech, is meeting with his advisors.
Now preparing to give a speech, the president is meeting with his advisors.

In these two examples, the adjective clauses are set off from the rest of the sentence with commas, so each sentence can be structured in three different ways: (1) with the complete clause, (2) with the reduced clause following the noun that it describes, and (3) with the reduced clause at the beginning of the sentence.

The following example shows how reduced adjective clauses could be tested in structure questions on the TOEFL test.

Example from the Paper and Computer TOEFL® Tests _____ on several different television programs, the witness gave conflicting accounts of what had happened.

(A) He appeared
(B) Who appeared
(C) Appearing
(D) Appears

In this example, answer (A) is incorrect because there are two clauses, He appeared... and the witness gave..., and there is no connector to join them. Answer (B) is incorrect because an adjective clause such as who appeared... cannot appear at the beginning of a sentence (unless it is in a reduced form). Answer (C) is the correct answer because it is the reduced form of the clause who appeared, and this reduced form can appear at the front of the sentence. Answer (D) is not the reduced form of a verb; it is merely a verb in the present tense; a verb such as appears needs a subject and a connector to be correct.

The following chart lists the structure for reduced adjective clauses and rules for how and when reduced forms can be used:

REDUCED ADJECTIVE CLAUSES
with a be-verb in the adjective clause	~~(ADJECTIVE CONNECTOR/SUBJECT)~~ ~~(who which that)~~	~~(BE)~~ with no be-verb in the adjective clause	~~(ADJECTIVE CONNECTOR/SUBJECT)~~ ~~(who which that)~~	(VERB + ING)

- To reduce an adjective clause, omit the adjective clause connector/subject and the be-verb.
- If there is no be-verb, omit the connector/subject and change the main verb to the -ing form.
- Only reduce an adjective clause if the connector/subject is directly followed by the verb.
- If an adjective clause is set off with commas, the reduced clause can be moved to the front of the sentence.

EXERCISE 13: Each of the following sentences contains an adjective clause, in a complete or reduced form. Underline the adjective clauses. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. We will have to return the merchandise purchased yesterday at the Broadway.

I 2. The children sat in the fancy restaurant found it difficult to behave.

____ 3. Serving a term of four years, the mayor of the town will face reelection next year.

____ 4. The brand new Cadillac, purchasing less than two weeks ago, was destroyed in the accident.

____ 5. The fans who supporting their team always come out to the games in large numbers.

____ 6. The suspect can be seen in the photographs were just released by the police.

____ 7. The food placing on the picnic table attracted a large number of flies.

____ 8. Impressed with everything she had heard about the course, Marie signed her children up for it.

____ 9. The passengers in the airport waiting room, heard the announcement of the canceled flight, groaned audibly.

____ 10. Dissatisfied with the service at the restaurant, the meal really was not enjoyable.

SKILL 14: USE REDUCED ADVERB CLAUSES CORRECTLY

Adverb clauses can also appear in a reduced form. In the reduced form, the adverb connector remains, but the subject and be-verb are omitted.

Although he is rather unwell, the speaker will take part in the seminar.

When you are ready, you can begin your speech.

These two examples may be used in either the complete or reduced form. In the reduced form, the adverb connectors although and when remain; the subjects he and you as well as the be-verbs is and are are omitted.

If there is no be-verb in the adverb clause, it is still possible to have a reduced form. When there is no be-verb in the adverb clause, the subject is omitted and the main verb is changed into the -ing form.

Although he feels rather sick, the speaker will take part in the seminar.
feeling

When you give your speech, you should speak loudly and distinctly.
giving

In the first example the adverb clause although he feels rather sick does not include a be-verb; to reduce this clause, the subject he is omitted and the main verb feels is changed to feeling. In the second example the adverb clause when you give your speech also does not include a be-verb; to reduce this clause, the subject you is omitted and the main verb give is changed to giving.

The following example shows how this sentence pattern could be tested in structure questions on the TOEFL test.

Example from the Paper and Computer TOEFL® Tests

When _____, you are free to leave.

(A) the finished report
(B) finished with the report
(C) the report
(D) is the report finished

In this example you should notice the adverb connector when, and you should know that this time word could be followed by either a complete clause or a reduced clause. Answers (A) and (C) contain the subjects the finished report and the report and no verb, so these answers are incorrect. In answer (D) the subject and verb are inverted, and this is not a question, so answer (D) is incorrect. The correct answer is answer (B); this answer is the reduced form of the clause when you are finished with the report.

It should be noted that not all adverb clauses can appear in a reduced form, and a number of adverb clauses can only be reduced if the verb is in the passive form.

Once you submit your thesis, you will graduate.
(active — does not reduce)

Once it is submitted, your thesis will be reviewed.
(passive — does reduce)

In the first example, the adverb clause once you submit your thesis does not reduce because clauses introduced by once only reduce if the verb is passive, and the verb submit is active. In the second example, the adverb clause once it is submitted does reduce to once submitted because the clause is introduced by once and the verb is submitted is passive.

The following chart lists the structures for reduced adverb clauses and which adverb clause connectors can be used in a reduced form:

REDUCED ADVERB CLAUSES
with a be-verb in the adverb clause	(ADVERB CONNECTOR) ~~(SUBJECT)~~ ~~(BE)~~
with no be-verb in the adverb clause	(ADVERB CONNECTOR) ~~(SUBJECT)~~ (VERB + ING)
	Time	Condition	Contrast	Place	Manner
reduces in ACTIVE	after before since while	if unless whether	although though reduces in PASSIVE	once until when whenever	if unless whether	although though	where wherever	as
• To reduce an adverb clause, omit the subject and the be-verb from the adverb clause. • If there is no be-verb, then omit the subject and change the verb to the -ing form.

EXERCISE 14: Each of the following sentences contains a reduced adverb clause. Circle the adverb connectors. Underline the reduced clauses. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. (If) not completely satisfied, you can return the product to the manufacturer.

I 2. Steve has had to learn how to cook and clean (since) left home.

___ 3. The ointment can be applied where needed.

___ 4. Tom began to look for a job after completing his master's degree in engineering.

___ 5. Although not selecting for the team, he attends all of the games as a fan.

SENTENCES WITH INVERTED SUBJECTS AND VERBS

Subjects and verbs are inverted in a variety of situations in English. Inverted subjects and verbs occur most often in the formation of a question. To form a question with a helping verb (be, have, can, could, will, would, etc.), the subject and helping verb are inverted.

He can go to the movies.
Can he go to the movies?

You would tell me the truth.
Would you tell me the truth?

She was sick yesterday.
Was she sick yesterday?

To form a question when there is no helping verb in the sentence, the helping verb do is used.

He goes to the movies.
Does he go to the movies?

You told me the truth.
Did you tell me the truth?

There are many other situations in English when subjects and verbs are inverted, but if you just remember this method of inverting subjects and verbs, you will be able to handle the other situations. The most common problems with inverted subjects and verbs on the TOEFL test occur in the following situations: (1) with question words such as what, when, where, why, and how; (2) after some place expressions; (3) after negative expressions; (4) in some conditionals; and (5) after some comparisons.

SKILL 15: INVERT THE SUBJECT AND VERB WITH QUESTION WORDS

There is some confusion about when to invert the subject and verb after question words such as what, when, where, why, and how. These words can have two very different functions in a sentence. First, they can introduce a question, and in this case the subject and verb that follow are inverted.

What is the homework?
When can I leave?
Where are you going?

Also, these words can join together two clauses, and in this case the subject and verb that follow are not inverted.

I do not know what the homework is.
When I can leave, I will take the first train.
Do you know where you are going?

In each of these examples there are two clauses joined by a question word. Notice that the subjects and verbs that follow the question words what, when, and where are not inverted in this case.

The following example shows how this sentence pattern could be tested in structure questions on the TOEFL test.

Example from the Paper and Computer TOEFL® Tests

The lawyer asked the client why _____ it.

(A) did he do
(B) did he
(C) he did
(D) did

In this example the question word why is used to connect the two clauses, so a subject and verb are needed after this connector; this is not a question, so the subject and verb should not be inverted. The best answer is therefore answer (C).

The following chart lists the question words and their sentence patterns:

INVERTED SUBJECTS AND VERBS WITH QUESTION WORDS who	what	when	where	why	how
When the question word introduces a question, the subject and verb are inverted.
(question word) V S ?
What are they?
When the question word connects two clauses, the subject and verb that follow are not inverted.
S V (question word) S V.
I know what they are.

EXERCISE 15: Each of the following sentences contains a question word. Circle the question words. Underline the subjects once and the verbs twice. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

I 1. The phone company is not certain (when) will the new directories be ready.

C 2. The professor does not understand (why) so many students did poorly on the exam.

____ 3. How new students can get information about parking?

____ 4. Where is it cheapest to get typeset copies printed?

____ 5. Only the pilot can tell you how far can the plane go on one tank of fuel.

____ 6. What type of security does he prefer for his investments?

____ 7. Not even the bank president knows when the vault will be opened.

____ 8. How long it has been since you arrived in the United States?

____ 9. The jury doubts what the witness said under cross-examination.

____ 10. Do you know why he wants to take an extended leave of absence?

SKILL 16: INVERT THE SUBJECT AND VERB WITH PLACE EXPRESSIONS

After ideas expressing place, the subject and the verb sometimes invert in English. This can happen with single words expressing place, such as here, there, or nowhere.

Here is the book that you lent me.
There are the keys that I thought I lost.
Nowhere have I seen such beautiful weather.

In the first example the place word here causes the subject book to come after the verb is. In the second example the place word there causes the subject keys to come after the verb are. In the last example the place word nowhere causes the subject I to come after the verb have.

The subject and verb can also be inverted after prepositional phrases expressing place.

In the closet are the clothes that you want.

Around the corner is Sam's house.

Beyond the mountains lies the town where you will live.

In the first example the prepositional phrase of place in the closet causes the subject clothes to come after the verb are. In the second example the prepositional phrase of place around the corner causes the subject house to come after the verb is. In the last example the prepositional phrase of place beyond the mountains causes the subject town to come after the verb lies.

It is important (and a bit difficult) to understand that the subject and verb will invert after place expressions at the beginning of a sentence only when the place expression is necessary to complete the sentence. Study the following examples:

In the forest are many exotic birds.

In the forest I walked for many hours.

In the first example the subject birds and verb are are inverted because the place expression in the forest is needed to complete the idea many exotic birds are.... In the second example the subject I and the verb walked are not inverted because the idea I walked for many hours is complete without the place expression in the forest; the place expression is therefore not needed to complete the sentence.

The following example shows how this sentence pattern could be tested in structure questions on the TOEFL test.

Example from the Paper and Computer TOEFL® Tests

On the second level of the parking lot _____.

(A) is empty
(B) are empty
(C) some empty stalls are
(D) are some empty stalls

This example begins with the place expression on the second level of the parking lot, which consists of two prepositional phrases, on the second level and of the parking lot. This sentence needs a subject and a verb to be complete, and the two answers that contain both a subject, stalls, and verb, are, are answers (C) and (D). The subject and verb should be inverted because the place expression is necessary to complete the idea some empty stalls are.... The best answer is therefore answer (D).

The following chart lists the sentence patterns used with place expressions:

INVERTED SUBJECTS AND VERBS WITH PLACE EXPRESSIONS
When a place expression at the front of the sentence is necessary to complete the sentence, the subject and verb that follow are inverted.
	PLACE (necessary)	V S
	In the classroom	were some old desks.
When a place expression at the front of the sentence contains extra information that is not needed to complete the sentence, the subject and verb that follow are not inverted.
	PLACE (extra)	S V
	In the classroom,	I studied very hard.

EXERCISE 16: Each of the following sentences contains an expression of place at the beginning of the sentence. Circle the expressions of place. Look at the clauses that immediately follow the place expressions and underline the subjects once and the verbs twice. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. (In front of the house) were some giant trees.

I 2. (There) a big house is on the corner.

____ 3. In the cave was a vast treasure of gems and jewels.

____ 4. To the north the stream is that the settlers will have to cross.

____ 5. Around the corner are the offices that you are trying to find.

____ 6. At the Italian restaurant was the food too spicy for my taste.

____ 7. Nowhere in the world farmers can grow such delicious food.

____ 8. In the backyard the two trees are that need to be pruned.

____ 9. Around the recreation hall and down the path are the tents where we will be staying this week.

____ 10. In the apartment next to mine a man and a woman were having a heated discussion.

SKILL 17: INVERT THE SUBJECT AND VERB WITH NEGATIVES

The subject and verb can also be inverted after certain negatives and related expressions. When negative expressions, such as no, not, or never, come at the beginning of a sentence, the subject and verb are inverted.

Not once did I miss a question.

Never has Mr. Jones taken a vacation.

At no time can the woman talk on the telephone.

In the first example the negative expression not once causes the subject I to come after the helping verb did. In the second example the negative word never causes the subject Mr. Jones to come after the helping verb has. In the last example the negative expression at no time causes the subject woman to come after the helping verb can.

Certain words in English, such as hardly, barely, scarcely, and only, act like negatives. If one of these words comes at the beginning of a sentence, the subject and verb are also inverted.

Hardly ever does he take time off.

(This means that he almost never takes time off.)

Only once did the manager issue overtime paychecks.

(This means that the manager almost never issued overtime paychecks.)

In the first example the "almost negative" expression hardly ever causes the subject he to come after the helping verb does. In the second example the "almost negative" expression only once causes the subject manager to come after the helping verb did.

When a negative expression appears in front of a subject and verb in the middle of a sentence, the subject and verb are also inverted. This happens often with the negative words neither and nor.

I do not want to go, and neither does Tom.

The secretary is not attending the meeting, nor is her boss.

In the first example the negative neither causes the subject Tom to come after the helping verb does. In the second example the negative nor causes the subject boss to come after the verb is.

The following example shows how this sentence pattern could be tested in structure questions on the TOEFL test.

Example from the Paper and Computer TOEFL® Tests

Only in extremely dangerous situations _____ stopped.

(A) will be the printing presses
(B) the printing presses will be
(C) that the printing presses will be
(D) will the printing presses be

In this example you should notice that the sentence begins with the negative only, so an inverted subject and verb are needed. Answer (D) contains a correctly inverted subject and verb, with the helping verb will, the subject printing presses, and the main verb be, so answer (D) is the best answer.

The following chart lists the negative expressions and the sentence pattern used with them:

INVERTED SUBJECTS AND VERBS WITH NEGATIVES
no	not	never	neither	nor barely	hardly	only	rarely	scarcely	seldom
When a negative expression appears in front of a subject and verb (at the beginning of a sentence or in the middle of a sentence) the subject and verb are inverted.
(negative expression)			V	S
Rarely			were they so happy.

EXERCISE 17: Each of the following sentences contains a negative or "almost negative" expression. Circle the negative expressions. Look at the clauses that follow and underline the subjects once and the verbs twice. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

I 1. (Never) the boy wrote to his sisters.

C 2. (On no occasion) did they say that to me.

____ 3. Steve did not win the prize, nor did he expect to do so.

____ 4. Only once in my life gone I have to New York City.

____ 5. Did he go out of the house at no time.

____ 6. Seldom their secretary has made such mistakes.

____ 7. No sooner had she hung up the phone than it rang again.

____ 8. Sheila did not arrive late for work, nor she left early.

____ 9. Barely had he finished the exam when the graduate assistant collected the papers.

____ 10. The police did not arrive in time to save the girl, and neither did the paramedics.

SKILL 18: INVERT THE SUBJECT AND VERB WITH CONDITIONALS

In certain conditional structures, the subject and verb may also be inverted. This can occur when the helping verb in the conditional clause is had, should, or were, and the conditional connector if is omitted.

If he had taken more time, the results would have been better.

Had he taken more time, the results would have been better.

I would help you if I were in a position to help.
I would help you were I in a position to help.

If you should arrive before 6:00, just give me a call.
Should you arrive before 6:00, just give me a call.

In each of these examples you can see that when if is included, the subject and verb are in the regular order (if he had taken, if I were, if you should arrive). It is also possible to omit if; in this case, the subject and verb are inverted (had he taken, were I, should you arrive).

The following example shows how this sentence pattern could be tested in structure questions on the TOEFL test.

Example from the Paper and Computer TOEFL® Tests

The report would have been accepted _____ in checking its accuracy.

(A) if more care
(B) more care had been taken
(C) had taken more care
(D) had more care been taken

In this example a connector if and a subject and verb are needed, but if could be omitted and the subject and verb inverted. Answer (A) is incorrect because it contains the connector if and the subject care but no verb. Answer (B) is incorrect because it contains the subject care and the verb had been taken but does not have a connector. In answers (C) and (D), if has been omitted. Because it is correct to invert the subject more care and the helping verb had, answer (D) is correct.

The following chart lists the conditional verbs that may invert and the sentence patterns used with them:

INVERTED SUBJECTS AND VERBS WITH CONDITIONALS had	should	were
When the verb in the conditional clause is had, should, or were, it is possible to omit if and invert the subject and verb.
(omitted if)	V S
	Were he	here, he would help.
It is also possible to keep if. Then the subject and verb are not inverted.
	if S V
	If he were	here, he would help.

EXERCISE 18: Each of the following sentences contains a conditional with a stated or an implied if. Circle the conditionals, or put an asterisk (*) where if has been omitted. Look at the clauses that follow and underline the subjects once and the verbs twice. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. *Were our neighbors a bit more friendly, it would be somewhat easier to get to know them.

I 2. There are plenty of blankets in the closet if should you get cold during the night.

____ 3. Has he enough vacation days left this year, he will take two full weeks off in December.

____ 4. Had we been informed of the decision, we might have had something to say about it.

____ 5. I would like to know could you help me pack these boxes.

____ 6. He would have been in big trouble had not he remembered the assignment at the last minute.

____ 7. If your friends come to visit, will they stay in a hotel or at your house?

____ 8. He might be a little more successful today were he a little more willing to do some hard work.

____ 9. Should you ever visit this town again, I would be delighted to show you around.

____ 10. Do you think that she would give the speech were she asked to do so?

SKILL 19: INVERT THE SUBJECT AND VERB WITH COMPARISONS

An inverted subject and verb may also occur after a comparison. The inversion of a subject and verb after a comparison is optional, rather than required, and it is a rather formal structure. There have been a number of inverted comparisons on recent TOEFL tests, so you should be familiar with this structure.

My sister spends more hours in the office than John.
My sister spends more hours in the office than John does.
My sister spends more hours in the office than does John.

All three of these examples contain the comparison more... than, and all three are correct in English. It is possible to have the noun John alone, as in the first example; it is possible that the comparison is followed by the subject and verb John does, as in the second example; it is also possible that the comparison is followed by the inverted subject and verb does John, as in the third example.

The following example shows how this sentence pattern could be tested in structure questions on the TOEFL test.

Example from the Paper and Computer TOEFL® Tests

The results of the current experiment appear to be more consistent than _____ the results of any previous tests.

(A) them
(B) were
(C) they were
(D) were they

In this example you should notice the comparison more consistent than, and you should also understand that the results of the current experiment is being compared with the results of any previous tests. Because the results of any previous tests is the subject, only a verb is needed; the best answer to this question is therefore answer (B). We know that it is possible for a subject and a verb to be inverted after a comparison, and in this case the subject the results of any previous tests comes after the verb were.

The following chart lists the sentence patterns used with comparisons:

INVERTED SUBJECTS AND VERBS WITH COMPARISONS
The subject and verb may invert after a comparison. The following structures are both possible.
S	V	(comparison)		S	V
We	were	more prepared than		the other performers	were.
S	V	(comparison)	V	S
We	were	more prepared than	were	the other performers.
NOTE: A subject-verb inversion after a comparison sounds rather formal.

EXERCISE 19: Each of the following sentences contains a comparison. Circle the comparisons. Look at the clauses that follow and underline the subjects once and the verbs twice. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. This candidate has received (more votes than) has any other candidate in previous years.

I 2. Obviously we were much (more impressed with the performance than) did the other members of the audience.

_____ 3. The film that we saw last night at the festival was far better than any of the other films.

_____ 4. The vegetables at the market this morning were far fresher than were those at the market yesterday.

_____ 5. I am afraid that is the condition of these tires as bad as the condition of the others.

_____ 6. We firmly believed that our team could achieve a much faster time than any of the others.

_____ 7. This apple pie is not as good as the last one that you made.

_____ 8. On the fishing trip, Bobby caught twice as many fish as anyone else did.

_____ 9. The final speaker gave us more details than had any of the previous speakers.

_____ 10. Do you know why does he need to sleep so many more hours than do the others?

EXERCISE (Skills 15–19): Each of these sentences contains a structure that could require an inverted subject and verb. Circle the structures that may require inverted subjects and verbs. Underline the subjects once and the verbs twice. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

_____ 1. The town council is not sure why have the land developers changed their plans.

_____ 2. Never in the world I believed that this would happen.

_____ 3. The day might have been a little more enjoyable had the sun been out a little more.

_____ 4. Only once did the judge take the defense lawyer's suggestion.

_____ 5. Down the hall to the left the offices are that need to be painted.

_____ 6. Did the scientist explain what he put in the beaker?

_____ 7. Hardly ever it snows in this section of the country.

_____ 8. Elijah scored more points in yesterday's basketball final than had any other player in history.

_____ 9. In the state of California, earthquakes occur regularly.

_____ 10. He should ever call again, please tell him that I am not at home.

TOEFL EXERCISE (Skills 15–19): Choose the letter of the word or group of words that best completes the sentence.

THE WRITTEN EXPRESSION QUESTIONS
(PAPER TOEFL® TEST AND COMPUTER TOEFL® TEST)

Written expression questions that test your knowledge of the correct way to express yourself in English writing appear on both the paper TOEFL test and the computer TOEFL test. Each question consists of one sentence in which four words or groups of words have been underlined. You must choose the underlined word or group of words that is not correct. Look at an example of a written expression question from the paper TOEFL test.

Example from the Paper TOEFL® Test

A nerve is actually many nerve fiber bound together.
A B C D

In this example, you should notice that the plural quantifier many is accompanied by the singular noun fiber. Many should be accompanied by the plural noun fibers. You should choose answer (C) because answer (C) is not correct.

Now, look at an example of a written expression question from the computer TOEFL test.

Example from the Computer TOEFL® Test

Venus emits very intense radio waves of thermally origin.

In this example, you should notice that the adverb thermally is used to describe the noun origin. The adjective thermal should be used to describe the noun. You should click on the word thermally to answer this question because thermally is not correct.

PROCEDURES FOR THE WRITTEN EXPRESSION QUESTIONS
(Paper TOEFL® Test and Computer TOEFL® Test)

1. First, look at the underlined words or groups of words. You want to see if you can spot which of the four answer choices is not correct.
2. If you have been unable to find the error by looking only at the four underlined expressions, then read the complete sentence. Often an underlined expression is incorrect because of something in another part of the sentence.

Next, you should move on to the language skills. The following language skills will help you to implement the appropriate strategies and procedures in written expression questions on both the paper TOEFL test and the computer TOEFL test.

PROBLEMS WITH SUBJECT/VERB AGREEMENT

Subject/verb agreement is simple: if the subject of a sentence is singular, then the verb must be singular; if the subject of the sentence is plural, then the verb must be plural. An s on a verb usually indicates that a verb is singular, while an s on a noun usually indicates that the noun is plural. (Do not forget irregular plurals of nouns, such as women, children, and people.)

The boy walks to school.
The boys walk to school.

In the first example the singular subject boy requires a singular verb, walks. In the second example the plural subject boys requires a plural verb, walk.

Although this might seem quite simple, there are a few situations on the TOEFL test when subject/verb agreement can be a little tricky. You should be careful of subject/verb agreement in the following situations: (1) after prepositional phrases, (2) after expressions of quantity, (3) after inverted verbs, and (4) after certain words, such as anybody, everything, no one, something, each, and every.

SKILL 20: MAKE VERBS AGREE AFTER PREPOSITIONAL PHRASES

Sometimes prepositional phrases can come between the subject and the verb. If the object of the preposition is singular and the subject is plural, or if the object of the preposition is plural and the subject is singular, there can be confusion in making the subject and verb agree.

The key (to the doors) are* in the drawer.
SINGULAR PLURAL

The keys (to the door) is* in the drawer.
PLURAL SINGULAR

(* indicates an error)

In the first example you might think that doors is the subject because it comes directly in front of the verb are. However, doors is not the subject because it is the object of the preposition to. The subject of the sentence is key, so the verb should be is. In the second example you might think that door is the subject because it comes directly in front of the verb is. You should recognize in this example that door is not the subject because it is the object of the preposition to. Because the subject of the sentence is keys, the verb should be are.

The following chart outlines the key information that you should understand about subject/verb agreement with prepositional phrases:

SUBJECT/VERB AGREEMENT WITH PREPOSITIONAL PHRASES
S (prepositional phrase) V
When a prepositional phrase comes between the subject and the verb, be sure that the verb agrees with the subject.

EXERCISE 20: Each of the following sentences has one or more prepositional phrases between the subject and verb. Circle the prepositional phrases. Underline the subjects once and the verbs twice. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. The climbers (on the sheer face) (of the mountain) need to be rescued.

I 2. The interrogation, conducted (by three police officers,) have lasted for several hours.

____ 3. The tenants in the apartment next to mine is giving a party this evening.

____ 4. The president, surrounded by secret service agents, is trying to make his way to the podium.

____ 5. The buildings destroyed during the fire are being rebuilt at the taxpayers' expense.

____ 6. Because of the seriousness of the company's financial problems, the board of directors have called an emergency meeting.

____ 7. Manufacture of the items that you requested have been discontinued because of lack of profit on those items.

____ 8. Further development of any new ideas for future products has to be approved in advance.

____ 9. The scheduled departure time of the trains, posted on panels throughout the terminal buildings, are going to be updated.

____ 10. Any houses built in that development before 1970 have to be upgraded to meet current standards.

SKILL 21: MAKE VERBS AGREE AFTER EXPRESSIONS OF QUANTITY

A particular agreement problem occurs when the subject is an expression of quantity, such as all, most, or some, followed by the preposition of. In this situation, the subject (all, most, or some) can be singular or plural, depending on what follows the preposition of.

All (of the book) was interesting.
SINGULAR

All (of the books) were interesting.
PLURAL

All (of the information) was interesting.
UNCOUNTABLE

In the first example the subject all refers to the singular noun book, so the correct verb is therefore the singular verb was. In the second example the subject all refers to the plural noun books, so the correct verb is the plural verb were. In the third example the subject all refers to the uncountable noun information, so the correct verb is therefore the singular verb was.

The following chart outlines the key information that you should understand about subject/verb agreement after expressions of quantity:

SUBJECT/VERB AGREEMENT AFTER EXPRESSIONS OF QUANTITY
all / most / some / half — OF THE (OBJECT) — V
When an expression of quantity is the subject, the verb agrees with the object.

EXERCISE 21: Each of the following sentences has a quantity expression as the subject. Underline the subjects once and the verbs twice. Circle the objects that the verbs agree with. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. The witnesses saw that most of the (fire) in the hills was extinguished.

I 2. Some of the (animals) from the zoo was released into the animal preserve.

____ 3. All of the students in the class taught by Professor Roberts is required to turn in their term papers next Monday.

____ 4. Half of the food that we are serving to the guests are still in the refrigerator.

____ 5. We believe that some of the time of the employees is going to be devoted to quality control.

____ 6. All of the witnesses in the jury trial, which lasted more than two weeks, have indicated that they believed that the defendant was guilty.

____ 7. She did not know where most of the people in the room was from.

____ 8. In spite of what was decided at the meeting, half of the procedures was not changed.

____ 9. I was sure that all of the questions on the test were correct.

____ 10. Most of the trouble that the employees discussed at the series of meetings was resolved within a few weeks.

SKILL 22: MAKE INVERTED VERBS AGREE

We have seen that sometimes in English the subject comes after the verb. This can occur after question words (Skill 15), after place expressions (Skill 16), after negative expressions (Skill 17), after omitted conditionals (Skill 18), and after some comparisons (Skill 19). When the subject and verb are inverted, it can be difficult to locate them, and it can therefore be a problem to make them agree.

(Behind the house) was* the bicycles I wanted.
(Behind the houses) were* the bicycle I wanted.

In the first example it is easy to think that house is the subject, because it comes directly in front of the verb was. House is not the subject, however, because it is the object of the preposition behind. The subject of the sentence is bicycles, and the subject bicycles comes after the verb because of the place expression behind the house. Because the subject bicycles is plural, the verb should be changed to the plural were. In the second example the subject bicycle comes after the verb were because of the place expression behind the houses. Because the subject bicycle is singular, the verb should be changed to the singular was.

The following chart outlines the key information that you should understand about subject/verb agreement after inverted verbs:

SUBJECT/VERB AGREEMENT AFTER INVERTED VERBS question negative place condition (no if) comparison V S
After question words, negative expressions, place expressions, conditions without if, and comparisons, the verb agrees with the subject, which may be after the verb.

EXERCISE 22: Each of the following sentences contains an inverted subject and verb. Circle the word or group of words that causes the subject and verb to invert. Find the subject and verb that follow these words. Underline the subject once and the verb twice. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. (Only once) this morning were the letters delivered by the campus mail service.

I 2. (Around the corner and to the right) is the rooms that have been assigned to that program.

___ 3. What in the world is the children trying to do?

___ 4. John would be studying the chapters were he able to get hold of the book.

___ 5. This chapter has many more exercises than do the next one.

___ 6. The computer programmer was unaware that there was so many mistakes in the program he had written.

___ 7. Seldom in the history of television has two new comedies been so successful in one season.

___ 8. How many huge mistakes have the teacher actually found in the research paper?

___ 9. The new phone system is able to hold far more messages than was the phone system that had previously been used.

___ 10. In the parking lot south of the stadium was the cars that were about to be towed.

SKILL 23: MAKE VERBS AGREE AFTER CERTAIN WORDS

Certain words in English are always grammatically singular, even though they might have plural meanings.

Everybody are going* to the theater.

Even though we understand from this example that a lot of people are going to the theater, everybody is singular and requires a singular verb. The plural verb are going should be changed to the singular verb is going.

The following chart lists the grammatically singular words that have plural meanings:

SUBJECT/VERB AGREEMENT AFTER CERTAIN WORDS
These words or expressions are grammatically singular, so they take singular verbs:
anybody	everybody	nobody	somebody	each (+ noun)
anyone	everyone	no one	someone	every (+ noun)
anything	everything	nothing	something

EXERCISE 23: Each of the following sentences contains one of the words that are grammatically singular but have plural meanings. Underline these words once and underline the verbs twice. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

I 1. It is impossible to believe that somebody actually admire that man.

C 2. Each of the doctors in the building needs to have a separate reception area.

____ 3. The president felt that no one were better suited for the position of chief staff advisor.

____ 4. Everybody participating in the fund-raiser are to turn in the tickets by 8:00.

____ 5. Because of the low number of orders, nothing has to be done now.

____ 6. Every time someone take unnecessary breaks, precious moments of production time are lost.

____ 7. Anybody who goes to the top of the Empire State Building is impressed with the view.

____ 8. Every man, woman, and child in this line are required to sign the forms in order to complete the registration process.

____ 9. It is nice to believe that anything is possible if a person tries hard enough.

____ 10. The company reiterated to reporters that nobody have been dismissed because of the incident.

EXERCISE (Skills 20–23): Underline the subjects once and the verbs twice in each of the following sentences. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

_____ 1. The contracts signed by the company has been voided because some stipulations were not met.

_____ 2. Ten miles beyond the river was the farmlands that they had purchased with their life savings.

_____ 3. Each package that is not properly wrapped have to be returned to the sender.

_____ 10. The Museum of the Confederation in Richmond hosts (A) an exhibition which documenting (B) the origins and history of the banner that most Americans (C) think of as (D) the Confederate flag.

PROBLEMS WITH PARALLEL STRUCTURE

In good English an attempt should be made to make the language as even and balanced as possible. This balance is called "parallel structure." You can achieve parallel structure by making the forms of words as similar as possible. The following is an example of a sentence that is not parallel:

I like to sing and dancing.*

The problem in this sentence is not the expression to sing, and the problem is not the word dancing. The expression to sing is correct by itself, and the word dancing is correct by itself. Both of the following sentences are correct:

I like to sing.
I like dancing.

The problem in the incorrect example is that to sing and dancing are joined together in one sentence with and. They are different forms where it is possible to have similar forms; therefore the example is not parallel. It can be corrected in two different ways: we can make the first expression like the second, or we can make the second expression like the first.

I like to sing and to dance.
I like singing and dancing.

There are several situations in which you should be particularly careful of parallel structure. Parallel structures are required in the following situations: (1) with coordinate conjunctions, such as and, but, or; (2) with paired conjunctions, such as both... and, either... or, neither... nor, not only... but also; and (3) with comparisons.

SKILL 24: USE PARALLEL STRUCTURE WITH COORDINATE CONJUNCTIONS

The job of the coordinate conjunctions (and, but, or) is to join together equal expressions. In other words, what is on one side of these words must be parallel to what is on the other side. These conjunctions can join nouns, or verbs, or adjectives, or phrases, or subordinate clauses, or main clauses; they just must join together two of the same thing. Here are examples of two nouns joined by a coordinate conjunction:

I need to talk to the manager or the assistant manager.
She is not a teacher but a lawyer.
You can choose from activities such as hiking and kayaking.

Here are examples of two verbs joined by a coordinate conjunction:

He only eats and sleeps when he takes a vacation.
She invites us to her home but never talks with us.
You can stay home or go to the movies with us.

Here are examples of two adjectives joined by a coordinate conjunction:

My boss is sincere and nice.
The exam that he gave was short but difficult.
Class can be interesting or boring.

Here are examples of two phrases joined by a coordinate conjunction:

There are students in the classroom and in front of the building.
The papers are on my desk or in the drawer.
The checks will be ready not at noon but at 1:00.

Here are examples of two clauses joined by a coordinate conjunction:

They are not interested in what you say or what you do.
I am here because I have to be and because I want to be.
Mr. Brown likes to go home early, but his wife prefers to stay late.

The following chart outlines the use of parallel structures with coordinate conjunctions:

PARALLEL STRUCTURE WITH COORDINATE CONJUNCTIONS
(same structure)	and but or	(same structure)
(same structure),	(same structure),	and but or	(same structure)

EXERCISE 24: Each of the following sentences contains words or groups of words that should be parallel. Circle the word that indicates that the sentence should have parallel parts. Underline the parts that should be parallel. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

I 1. She held jobs as a typist, a housekeeper, (and) in a restaurant.

C 2. The report you are looking for could be in the file (or) on the desk.

____ 3. She works very hard but usually gets below-average grades.

____ 4. The speaker introduced himself, told several interesting anecdotes, and finishing with an emotional plea.

____ 5. You should know when the program starts and how many units you must complete.

____ 6. The term paper he wrote was rather short but very impressive.

____ 7. She suggested taking the plane this evening or that we go by train tomorrow.

____ 8. The dean or the assistant dean will inform you of when and where you should apply for your diploma.

____ 9. There are papers to file, reports to type, and those letters should be answered.

____ 10. The manager needed a quick but thorough response.

SKILL 25: USE PARALLEL STRUCTURE WITH PAIRED CONJUNCTIONS

The paired conjunctions both...and, either...or, neither...nor, and not only...but also require parallel structures.

I know both where you went and what you did.
Either I_ rk or Sue has the book.
The tic: ets are neither in my pocket nor in my purse.
He is not only an excellent student but also an outstanding athlete.

The following is not parallel and must be corrected:

He wants either to go by train or by plane*.

It is not correct because to go by train is not parallel to by plane. It can be corrected in several ways.

He wants either to go by train or to go by plane.
He wants to go either by train or by plane.
He wants to go by either train or plane.

When you are using these paired conjunctions, be sure that the correct parts are used together. The following are incorrect:

I want both this book *or that one.
Either Sam *nor Sue is taking the course.

These sentences are incorrect because the wrong parts of the paired conjunctions are used together. In the first example, and should be used with both. In the second example, or should be used with either.

The following chart outlines the use of parallel structure with paired conjunctions:

PARALLEL STRUCTURE WITH PAIRED CONJUNCTIONS
both either neither not only	(same structure)	and or nor but also	(same structure)

EXERCISE 25: Each of the following sentences contains words or groups of words that should be parallel. Circle the word or words that indicate that the sentence should have parallel parts. Underline the parts that should be parallel. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

I 1. According to the syllabus, you can (either) write a paper (or) you can take an exam.

C 2. It would be (both) noticed (and) appreciated if you could finish the work before you leave.

____ 3. She would like neither to see a movie or to go bowling.

____ 4. Either the manager or her assistant can help you with your refund.

____ 5. She wants not only to take a trip to Europe but she also would like to travel to Asia.

____ 6. He could correct neither what you said nor you wrote.

____ 7. Both the tailor or the laundress could fix the damage to the dress.

____ 8. He not only called the police department but also called the fire department.

____ 9. You can graduate either at the end of the fall semester or you can graduate at the end of the spring semester.

____ 10. The movie was neither amusing nor was it interesting.

SKILL 26: USE PARALLEL STRUCTURE WITH COMPARISONS

When you make a comparison, you point out the similarities or differences between two things, and those similarities or differences must be in parallel form. You can recognize a comparison showing how two things are different from the -er... than or the more... than.

My school is farth*er than* your school.
To be rich is bett*er than* to be poor.
What is written is more easily understood than what is spoken.

A comparison showing how two things are the same might contain as... as or expressions such as the same as or similar to.

Their car is as big as a small house.
Renting those apartments costs about the same as leasing them.
The work that I did is similar to the work that you did.

The following chart outlines the use of parallel structures with comparisons:

PARALLEL STRUCTURE WITH COMPARISONS
(same structure)	more ... than -er ... than less ... than as ... as the same ... as similar ... to	(same structure)

EXERCISE 26: Each of the following sentences contains words or groups of words that should be parallel. Circle the word or words that indicate that the sentence should have parallel parts. Underline the parts that should be parallel. Then indicate if each sentence is correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. His research for the thesis was (more useful than) hers.

I 2. Dining in a restaurant is (more fun than) to eat at home.

____ 3 I want a new secretary who is as efficient as the previous one.

____ 4. What you do today should be the same as did yesterday.

____ 5. This lesson is more difficult than we had before.

____ 6. You have less homework than they do.

____ 7. What you do has more effect than what you say.

____ 8. Music in your country is quite similar to my country.

____ 9. The collection of foreign journals in the university library is more extensive than the high school library.

____ 10. How to buy a used car can be as difficult as buying a new car.

EXERCISE (Skills 24–26): Circle the word or words that indicate that the sentence should have parallel parts. Underline the parts that should be parallel. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

____ 1. After retirement he plans on traveling to exotic locations, dine in the finest restaurants, and playing a lot of golf.

____ 2. She was both surprised by and pleased with the seminar.

____ 3. What came after the break was even more boring than had come before.

____ 4. He would find the missing keys neither under the bed or behind the sofa.

____ 5. Depending on the perspective of the viewer, the film was considered laudable, mediocrity, or horrendous.

____ 6. He exercised not only in the morning, but he also exercised every afternoon.

____ 7. Working four days per week is much more relaxing than working five days per week.

____ 8. Sam is always good-natured, generous, and helps you.

____ 9. Either you have to finish the project, or the contract will be canceled.

____ 10. The courses that you are required to take are more important than the courses that you choose.

____ 10. At least one sample of each of (A) the brands contains (B) measurable amounts of aflatoxin, and there is (C) three which exceed (D) the maximum.

PROBLEMS WITH COMPARATIVES AND SUPERLATIVES

Sentences with incorrect comparatives and superlatives can appear on the TOEFL test. It is therefore important for you to know how to do the following: (1) form the comparative and superlative correctly; (2) use the comparative and superlative correctly; and (3) use the irregular -er, -er structure that has been appearing frequently on the TOEFL test.

SKILL 27: FORM COMPARATIVES AND SUPERLATIVES CORRECTLY

The problem with some of the comparative and superlative sentences on the TOEFL test is that the comparative or superlative is formed incorrectly. You should therefore understand how to form the comparative and superlative to answer such questions correctly.

The comparative is formed with either -er or more and than. In the comparative, -er is used with short adjectives such as tall, and more is used with longer adjectives such as beautiful.

Bob is tall*er than* Ron.
Sally is more beautiful than Sharon.

The superlative is formed with the, either -est or most, and sometimes in, of, or a that-clause. In the superlative, -est is used with short adjectives such as tall, and most is used with longer adjectives such as beautiful.

Bob is the tall*est* man in the room.
Sally is the most beautiful of all the women at the party.
The spider over there is the larg*est* one that I have ever seen.
The fast*est* runner wins the race. (no in, of, or that)

The following chart outlines the possible forms of comparatives and superlatives:

THE FORM OF COMPARATIVES AND SUPERLATIVES
COMPARATIVE	[more (long adjective) / (short adjective) + er]		than
SUPERLATIVE	the	[most (long adjective) / (short adjective) + est]	maybe in, of, that

EXERCISE 27: Each of the following sentences contains a comparative or superlative. Circle the comparative or superlative. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

I 1. Oxygen is (abundanter than) nitrogen.

C 2. The directions to the exercise say to choose (the most appropriate) response.

____ 3. The lesson you are studying now is the most importantest lesson that you will have.

____ 4. Fashions this year are shorter and more colorful than they were last year.

____ 5. The professor indicated that Anthony's research paper was more long than the other students' papers.

____ 6. Alaska is the coldest than all the states in the United States.

____ 7. The workers on the day shift are more rested than the workers on the night shift.

____ 8. She was more happier this morning than she had been yesterday.

____ 9. The quarterback on this year's football team is more versatile than the quarterback on last year's team.

____ 10. She always tries to do the best and most efficient job that she can do.

SKILL 28: USE COMPARATIVES AND SUPERLATIVES CORRECTLY

Another problem with the comparative and superlative on the TOEFL test is that they can be used incorrectly. The comparative and superlative have different uses, and you should understand these different uses to answer such questions correctly. The comparative is used to compare two equal things.

The history class is larger than the math class.
Mary is more intelligent than Sue.

In the first example the history class is being compared with the math class. In the second example Mary is being compared with Sue.

The superlative is used when there are more than two items to compare and you want to show the one that is the best, the biggest, or in some way the most outstanding.

The history class is the largest in the school.
Mary is the most intelligent of all the students in the class.

In the first example the history class is compared with all the other classes in the school, and the history class is larger than each of the other classes. In the second example, Mary is compared with all the other students in the class, and Mary is more intelligent than each of the other students.

The following chart outlines the uses of comparatives and superlatives:

THE USES OF COMPARATIVES AND SUPERLATIVES
The COMPARATIVE is used to compare two equal things.
The SUPERLATIVE is used to show which one of many is in some way the most outstanding.

EXERCISE 28: Each of the following sentences contains a comparative or superlative. Circle the comparative or superlative. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. Harvard is probably (the most prestigious) university in the United States.

I 2. Rhonda is (more hard working) of the class.

____ 3. The engineers hired this year have more experience than those hired last year.

____ 4. The graduate assistant informed us that the first exam is the most difficult of the two.

____ 5. He bought the more powerful stereo speakers that he could find.

____ 6. The afternoon seminar was much more interesting than the morning lecture.

____ 7. The food in this restaurant is the best of the restaurant we visited last week.

____ 8. The plants that have been sitting in the sunny window are far healthier than the other plants.

____ 9. The photocopies are the darkest that they have ever been.

____ 10. The first journal article is the longest of the second article.

SKILL 29: USE THE IRREGULAR -ER, -ER STRUCTURE CORRECTLY

An irregular comparative structure that has been appearing frequently on the TOEFL test consists of two parallel comparatives introduced by the.

The harder he tried, the further he fell behind.
The older the children are, the more their parents expect from them.

The first example contains the two parallel comparatives, the harder and the further. The second example contains the two parallel comparatives, the older and the more.

In this type of sentence, the and the comparison can be followed by a number of different structures.

The more children you have, the bigger the house you need.
The harder you work, the more you accomplish.
The greater the experience, the higher the salary.

In the first example, the more is followed by the noun children and the subject and verb you have, while the bigger is followed by the noun the house and the subject and verb you need. In the second example, the harder is followed by the subject and verb you work, while the more is followed by the subject and verb you accomplish. In the third example, the greater is followed only by the noun the experience, while the higher is followed only by the noun the salary. You should note that this last example does not even contain a verb, yet it is a correct structure in English.

The following chart outlines this irregular -er, -er structure:

THE -ER, -ER STRUCTURE
THE	-er / more	(same structure),	THE	-er / more	(same structure)
This type of sentence may or may not include a verb.

EXERCISE 29: Each of the following sentences contains the irregular -er, -er structure. Circle the two comparisons with the. Underline the parts that should be parallel. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

I 1. (The hotter) the food is, (harder) it is to eat.

C 2. (The warmer) the weather, (the greater) the attendance at the outdoor concert.

____ 3. The more you say, the worst the situation will be.

____ 4. The more time they have to play, the happier the children are.

____ 5. The thicker the walls, the noise that comes through is less.

____ 6. If you run faster, the earlier you'll arrive.

____ 7. The more you use the phone, the higher the bill will be.

____ 8. The harder you serve, the easier it is to win the point.

_____ 9. The earliest you send in your tax forms, the sooner you will receive your refund.

_____ 10. The more people there are at the party, you'll have a good time.

EXERCISE (Skills 27–29): Circle the comparatives and superlatives in the following sentences. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

_____ 1. The coffee is more stronger today than it was yesterday.

_____ 2. The tree that was struck by lightning had been the tallest of the two trees we had in the yard.

PROBLEMS WITH THE FORM OF THE VERB

It is common in written expression questions on the TOEFL test for the verbs to be formed incorrectly. Therefore, you should check the form of the verb carefully. You should be familiar with the following verb forms: the base form, the present tense, the present participle, the past, and the past participle. The following are examples of each of these verb forms as they are used in this text:

BASE FORM	PRESENT	PRESENT PARTICIPLE	PAST	PAST PARTICIPLE
walk	walk(s)	walking	walked	walked
hear	hear(s)	hearing	heard	heard
cook	cook(s)	cooking	cooked	cooked
sing	sing(s)	singing	sang	sung
come	come(s)	coming	came	come
begin	begin(s)	beginning	began	begun

You should be particularly aware of the following three problematic situations with verbs because they are the most common and the easiest to correct: (1) check what comes after have; (2) check what comes after be; and (3) check what comes after will, would, and other modals.

> NOTE: A more complete list of verb forms and an exercise to practice their use are included at the back of the text in Appendix F. You may want to complete this exercise before you continue with skills 30 through 32.

SKILL 30: AFTER HAVE, USE THE PAST PARTICIPLE

Whenever you see the helping verb have in any of its forms (have, has, having, had), be sure that the verb that follows it is in the past participle form.

They *had walk to school.	(should be had walked)
We *have see the show.	(should be have seen)
He *has took the test.	(should be has taken)
*Having ate, he went to school.	(should be Having eaten)
She *should have did the work.	(should be should have done)

In addition, you should be sure that if you have a subject and a past participle, you also have the verb have. This problem is particularly common with those verbs (such as sing, sang, sung) that change from present to past to past participle by changing only the vowel.

My friend *sung in the choir.	(should be sang or has sung)
He *become angry at his friend.	(should be became or has become)
The boat *sunk in the ocean.	(should be sank or has sunk)

VERB FORMS AFTER HAVE
HAVE + past participle

EXERCISE 30: Each of the following sentences contains a verb in the past or a past participle. Underline the verbs or past participles twice. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

I 1. The young girl drunk a glass of milk.

C 2. Before she left, she had asked her mother for permission.

___ 3. Having finished the term paper, he began studying for the exam.

___ 4. The secretary has broke her typewriter.

___ 7. She has rarely rode her horse in the park.

___ 8. Having saw the film, he was quite disappointed.

___ 9. Tom has thought about taking that job.

___ 10. You might have respond more effectively.

SKILL 31: AFTER BE, USE THE PRESENT PARTICIPLE OR THE PAST PARTICIPLE

The verb be in any of its forms (am, is, are, was, were, be, been, being) can be followed by another verb. This verb should be in the present participle or the past participle form.

We *are do our homework.	(should be are doing)
The homework *was do early.	(should be was done)
Tom *is take the book.	(should be is taking)
The book *was take by Tom.	(should be was taken)

The following chart outlines the use of verb forms after be:

VERB FORMS AFTER BE
BE	+	(1) present participle (2) past participle

EXERCISE 31: Each of the following sentences contains a verb formed with be. Underline the verbs twice. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

I 1. At 12:00 Sam is eat his lunch.

C 2. We are meeting them later today.

____ 3. The message was took by the receptionist.

____ 4. Being heard was extremely important to him.

____ 7. The report should have been submit by noon.

____ 8. Are the two companies merge into one?

____ 9. He could be taking four courses this semester.

____ 10. The score information has been duplicates on the back-up disk.

SKILL 32: AFTER WILL, WOULD, OR OTHER MODALS, USE THE BASE FORM OF THE VERB

Whenever you see a modal, such as will, would, shall, should, can, could, may, might, or must, you should be sure that the verb that follows it is in its base form.

The boat *will leaving at 3:00.	(should be will leave)
The doctor *may arrives soon.	(should be may arrive)
The students *must taken the exam.	(should be must take)

The following chart outlines the use of verb forms after modals:

VERBS FORMS AFTER MODALS
MODAL + base form of the verb

EXERCISE 32: Each of the following sentences contains a verb formed with a modal. Underline the verbs twice. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. The salesclerk might lower the price.

I 2. The television movie will finishes in a few minutes.

____ 3. Should everyone arrive by 8:00?

____ 4. The method for organizing files can be improved.

PROBLEMS WITH THE USE OF THE VERB

Many different problems in using the correct verb tense are possible in English. However, four specific problems occur frequently on the TOEFL test, so you need to pay careful attention to these four: (1) knowing when to use the past with the present, (2) using had and have correctly, (3) using the correct tense with time expressions, and (4) using the correct tense with will and would.

SKILL 33: KNOW WHEN TO USE THE PAST WITH THE PRESENT

One verb tense problem that is common both in student writing and on the TOEFL test is the switch from the past tense to the present tense for no particular reason. Often when a sentence has both a past tense and a present tense, the sentence is incorrect.

He took the money when he *wants it.

This sentence says that he took the money (in the past) when he wants it (in the present). This meaning does not make any sense; it is impossible to do something in the past as a result of something you want in the present. This sentence can be corrected in several ways, depending on the desired meaning.

He took the money when he wanted it.
He takes the money when he wants it.

The first example means that he took the money (in the past) when he wanted it (in the past). This meaning is logical, and the sentence is correct. The second example means that he takes the money (habitually) when he wants it (habitually). This meaning is also logical, and the second example is also correct.

It is necessary to point out, however, that it is possible for a logical sentence in English to have both the past and the present tense.

I know that he took the money yesterday.

The meaning of this sentence is logical: I know (right now, in the present) that he took the money (yesterday, in the past). You can see from this example that it is possible for an English sentence to have both the past and the present tense. The error you need to avoid is the switch from the past to the present for no particular reason. Therefore, when you see a sentence on the TOEFL test with both the past tense and the present tense, you must check the meaning of the sentence carefully to see if it is logical in English.

The following chart outlines the use of the past tense with the present tense in English:

USING THE PAST WITH THE PRESENT
1. If you see a sentence with one verb in the past and one verb in the present, the sentence is probably incorrect.
2. However, it is possible for a correct sentence to have both past and present together.
3. If you see the past and present together, you must check the meaning to determine whether or not the sentence is correct.

EXERCISE 33: Each of the following sentences has at least one verb in the past and one verb in the present. Underline the verbs twice and decide if the meanings are logical. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

I 1. I tell him the truth when he asked me the question.

C 2. I understand that you were angry.

____ 3. When he was a child, he always goes to the circus.

_____ 4. Last semester he reads seven books and wrote five papers.

_____ 5. Steve wakes up early every morning because he went to work early.

_____ 6. Mark studied at the American University when he is in Washington, D.C.

_____ 7. He is telling the teacher why he did not have time to finish his homework.

_____ 8. He put some money in his account when he goes to the bank.

_____ 9. Tom keeps studying hard because he intended to go to dental school.

_____ 10. She is where she is today because she worked hard when she was a student.

SKILL 34: USE HAVE AND HAD CORRECTLY

Two tenses that are often confused are the present perfect (have + past participle) and the past perfect (had + past participle). These two tenses have completely different uses, and you should understand how to differentiate them.

The present perfect (have + past participle) refers to the period of time from the past until the present.

> Sue has lived in Los Angeles for ten years.

This sentence means that Sue has lived in Los Angeles for the ten years up to now. According to this sentence, Sue is still living in Los Angeles.

Because the present perfect refers to a period of time from the past until the present, it is not correct in a sentence that indicates past only.

> At the start of the nineteenth century, Thomas Jefferson *has become president of the United States.
> Every time Jim worked on his car, he *has improved it.

In the first example, the phrase at the start of the nineteenth century indicates that the action of the verb was in the past only, but the verb indicates the period of time from the past until the present. Since this is not logical, the sentence is not correct. The verb in the first example should be the simple past became. The second example indicates that Jim worked on his car in the past, but he improved it in the period from the past until the present. This idea also is not logical. The verb in the second example should be the simple past improved.

The past perfect (had + past participle) refers to a period of time that started in the past and ended in the past, before something else happened in the past.

> Sue had lived in Los Angeles for ten years when she moved to San Diego.

This sentence means that Sue lived in Los Angeles for ten years in the past before she moved to San Diego in the past. She no longer lives in Los Angeles.

Because the past perfect begins in the past and ends in the past, it is generally not correct in the same sentence with the present tense.

> Tom had finished the exam when the teacher *collects the papers.

This sentence indicates that Tom finished the exam (in the past) and that action ended when the teacher collects the papers (in the present). This is not logical, so the sentence is not correct. Tom finished the exam (in the past), and the action of finishing the exam ended when the teacher collected the papers. Therefore, the second verb in this example should be in the past tense, collected.

The following chart outlines the uses of the present perfect and the past perfect:

USING (HAVE + PAST PARTICIPLE) AND (HAD + PAST PARTICIPLE)
TENSE	FORM	MEANING	USE
present perfect	have + past participle	past up to now	not with a past tense
past perfect	had + past participle	before past up to past	not with a present tense
Except when the time expression since is part of the sentence (see Skill 35).

EXERCISE 34: Each of the following sentences contains had or have. Underline the verbs twice and decide if the meanings are logical. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. I have always liked the designs that are on the cover.

I 2. Because her proposal had been rejected, she is depressed.

____ 3. The students have registered for classes before the semester started.

____ 4. When she had purchased the car, she contacted the insurance agent.

____ 8. After the votes were counted, it had been determined that Steve was the winner.

____ 9. Last night all the waiters and waitresses have worked overtime.

____ 10. He had fastened his seat belt before the airplane took off.

SKILL 35: USE THE CORRECT TENSE WITH TIME EXPRESSIONS

Often in written expression questions on the TOEFL test there is a time expression that clearly indicates what verb tense is needed in the sentence.

We moved to New York in 1980.
We had left there by 1990.
We have lived in San Francisco since 1999.

In the first example, the time expression in 1980 indicates that the verb should be in the simple past (moved). In the second example, the time expression by 1990 indicates that the verb should be in the past perfect (had left). In the third example, the time expression since 1999 indicates that the verb should be in the present perfect (have lived).

Some additional time expressions that clearly indicate the correct tense are ago, last, and lately.

She got a job two years ago.
She started working last week.
She has worked very hard lately.

In the first example, the time expression two years ago indicates that the verb should be in the simple past (got). In the second example, the time expression last week indicates that the verb should be in the simple past (started). In the third example, the time expression lately indicates that the verb should be in the present perfect (has worked).

The following chart lists time expressions that indicate the correct verb tense:

USING CORRECT TENSES WITH TIME EXPRESSIONS
PAST PERFECT	SIMPLE PAST	PRESENT PERFECT
by (1920)	(two years) ago last (year) in (1920)	since (1920) lately

EXERCISE 35: Each of the following sentences contains a time expression. Circle the time expressions and underline the verbs twice. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. The phone rang incessantly (last night.)

I 2. They have finished contacting everyone (by 4:00 yesterday.)

____ 3. The Pilgrims have arrived in the New World in 1620.

____ 4. Since the new law was passed, it has been difficult to estimate taxes.

____ 6. All the votes have been counted last week.

____ 7. The students are writing many compositions lately.

____ 8. The Senate votes on the law to ban cigarette smoking in public in 1990.

____ 9. By the time the main course was served, all the guests had arrived and been seated.

____ 10. I had not done much more work since I talked to you on Wednesday.

SKILL 36: USE THE CORRECT TENSE WITH WILL AND WOULD

Certain combinations of verbs are very common in English. One is the combination of the simple present and will.

I know that they will arrive soon.
It is certain that he will graduate.

Another combination that is quite common is the combination of the simple past and would.

I knew that he would arrive.
It was certain that he would graduate.

It is important to stress that in the combination discussed here, the present should be used with will and the past should be used with would; they generally should not be mixed.

The common errors that must generally be avoided are the combination of the past with will and the combination of the present with would.

I know that he *would arrive soon.
It was certain that he *will graduate.

In the first example, the present, know, is illogical with would. It can be corrected in two different ways.

I knew that he would arrive soon.
I know that he will arrive soon.

In the second example, the past, was, is illogical with will. It can also be corrected in two different ways.

It was certain that he would graduate.
It is certain that he will graduate.

The following chart outlines the use of tenses with will and would:

USING CORRECT TENSES WITH WILL AND WOULD
VERB	MEANING	USE
will	after the present	do not use with past
would	after the past	do not use with present
NOTE: There is a different modal would that is used to make polite requests. This type of would is often used with the present tense. I would like to know if you have a pencil that I could borrow.

EXERCISE 36: Each of the following sentences contains will or would. Underline the verbs twice and decide if the meanings are logical. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

I 1. He knew that he will be able to pass the exam.

C 2. I think that I will leave tomorrow.

____ 3. Paul did not say when he will finish the project.

____ 4. Jake doubts that he would have time to finish the project.

____ 5. I know that I will go if I can afford it.

PROBLEMS WITH PASSIVE VERBS

Sentences in which the error is an incorrect passive are common in written expression questions on the TOEFL test. You therefore need to be able to recognize the correct form of the passive and to be able to determine when a passive verb rather than an active verb is needed in a sentence.

The difference between an active and a passive verb is that the subject in an active sentence does the action of the verb, and the subject in a passive sentence receives the action of the verb. To convert a sentence from active to passive, two changes must be made. (1) The subject of the active sentence becomes the object of the passive sentence, while the object of the active sentence becomes the subject of the passive sentence. (2) The verb in the passive sentence is formed by putting the helping verb be in the same form as the verb in the active sentence and then adding the past participle of this verb.

The first example is an active sentence. To convert this active sentence to a passive sentence, you must first make the subject of the active sentence, Margaret, the object of the passive sentence with by. The object of the active sentence, letter, becomes the subject of the passive sentence. Next, the passive verb can be formed. Because wrote is in the past tense in the active sentence, the past tense of be (was) is used in the passive sentence. Then the verb wrote in the active sentence is changed to the past participle written in the passive sentence.

It should be noted that in a passive sentence, by + object does not need to be included to have a complete sentence. The following are both examples of correct sentences.

The letter was written yesterday by Margaret.
The letter was written yesterday.

Notice that these passive sentences are correct if by Margaret is included (as in the first example) or if by Margaret is omitted (as in the second example).

> NOTE: Exercises to practice active and passive forms can be found in Appendix G at the back of the text. You may want to complete these exercises before you begin Skill 37.

SKILL 37: USE THE CORRECT FORM OF THE PASSIVE

One way that the passive can be tested on the TOEFL test is simply with an incorrect form of the passive. The following are examples of passive errors that might appear on the TOEFL test:

The portrait *was painting by a famous artist.
The project *will finished by Tim.

In the first example, the passive is formed incorrectly because the past participle painted should be used rather than the present participle painting. In the second example, the verb be has not been included, and some form of be is necessary for a passive verb. The verb in the second sentence should be will be finished.

The following chart outlines the way to form the passive correctly:

THE FORM OF THE PASSIVE
BE + past participle (BY + object)

EXERCISE 37: Each of the following sentences has a passive meaning. Underline twice the verbs that should be passive. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

I 1. The boy had never be stung by a bee.

C 2. The suits were hung in the closet when they were returned from the cleaners.

____ 3. Money is lending by the credit union to those who want to buy homes.

____ 4. The record had been chose by dancers near the jukebox.

____ 5. The topic for your research paper should have been approved by your advisor.

____ 6. That song has been playing over and over again by Steve.

____ 7. Their utility bills have been increased again and again.

____ 8. The patients who are too sick to sit up are being assisted by the orderlies.

____ 9. The offices were thoroughly clean last evening by the night crew.

____ 10. The car that was struck in the intersection yesterday is being repaired today.

SKILL 38: RECOGNIZE ACTIVE AND PASSIVE MEANINGS

When there is no object (with or without by) after a verb, you must look at the meaning of the sentence to determine if the verb should be active or passive. Sentences with an incorrect passive verb and no by + object to tell you that the verb should be passive are the most difficult passive errors to recognize on the TOEFL test. Study the examples:

We mailed the package at the post office.
The letter was mailed by us today before noon.
The letter was mailed today before noon.
The letter mailed* today before noon.

The first three examples above are correct. The first example has the active verb mailed used with the object package; the second example has the passive verb was mailed used with by us; the third sentence has the passive verb was mailed used without an object.

The fourth example is the type of passive error that appears most often on the TOEFL test. This type of sentence has the following characteristics: (1) an incorrect passive verb that looks like a correct active verb, and (2) no by + object to tell you that a passive is needed. To correct the fourth example, the active verb needs to be changed to the passive was mailed.

To determine that such a sentence is incorrect, you must study the meaning of the subject and the verb. You must ask yourself if the subject does the action of the verb (so an active verb is needed) or if the subject receives the action of the verb (so a passive verb is needed). In the incorrect example, you should study the meaning of the subject and verb, the letter mailed. You should ask yourself if a letter mails itself (the letter does the action) or if someone mails a letter (the letter receives the action of being mailed). Since a letter does not mail itself, the passive is required in this sentence.

The following chart outlines the difference in meaning between active and passive verbs:

ACTIVE AND PASSIVE MEANINGS
ACTIVE	The subject does the action of the verb.
PASSIVE	The subject receives the action of the verb.

EXERCISE 38: Each of the following sentences contains at least one active verb; however, some of the verbs should be passive. Underline the verbs twice. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

PROBLEMS WITH NOUNS

The same types of problems with nouns appear often in written expression questions on the TOEFL test. You should be familiar with these problems so that you will recognize them easily. You should be able to do the following: (1) use the correct singular or plural noun, (2) distinguish countable and uncountable nouns, (3) recognize irregular singular and plural nouns, and (4) distinguish the person from the thing.

SKILL 39: USE THE CORRECT SINGULAR OR PLURAL NOUN

A problem that is common in written expression questions on the TOEFL test is a singular noun used where a plural noun is needed, or a plural noun used where a singular noun is needed.

On the table there were many *dish.
The lab assistant finished every *tests.

In the first example, many indicates that the plural dishes is needed. In the second example, every indicates that the singular test is needed.

In written expression questions on the TOEFL test, you should watch very carefully for key words, such as each, every, a, one, and single, that indicate that a noun should be singular. You should also watch carefully for such key words as many, several, both, various, and two (or any other number except one) that indicate that a noun should be plural.

The following chart lists the key words that indicate to you whether a noun should be singular or plural:

KEY WORDS FOR SINGULAR AND PLURAL NOUNS
For Singular Nouns	each	every	single	one	a
For Plural Nouns	both	two	many	several	various

EXERCISE 39: Each of the following sentences contains at least one key word to tell you if a noun should be singular or plural. Circle the key words. Draw arrows to the nouns they describe. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

I 1. The automotive shop stocked (many) part for the (various) types of Hondas.

C 2. (Every) receipt must be removed from the cashier's drawer and tallied.

____ 3. The salesclerk demonstrated various additional way that the machine could be used.

____ 4. The woman found it difficult to believe that both of the piece of jewelry had disappeared.

____ 5. The unhappy man became more and more discouraged with each passing days.

____ 6. An extended cruise would be a nice way to spend a vacation one days.

____ 7. The manager was surprised that not a single worker was available on Tuesday.

____ 8. The housekeeper cleaned the room and took two of the occupant's dress to the laundry.

____ 9. When the first bill was defeated, the Senate immediately began work on a different bills.

____ 10. There were several boxes in the cupboard, and each box contained a dozen glasses.

SKILL 40: DISTINGUISH COUNTABLE AND UNCOUNTABLE NOUNS

In English, nouns are classified as countable or uncountable. For certain questions on the TOEFL test, it is necessary to distinguish countable and uncountable nouns in order to use the correct modifiers with them.

As the name implies, countable nouns are nouns that can be counted. Countable nouns can come in quantities of one, or two, or a hundred, etc. The noun book is countable because you can have one book or several books.

Uncountable nouns, on the other hand, are nouns that cannot be counted because they come in some indeterminate quantity or mass. A noun such as milk or happiness cannot be counted; you cannot have one milk or two milks, and you cannot find one happiness or two happinesses. Uncountable nouns are often liquid items, such as water, oil, or shampoo. Uncountable nouns can also refer to abstract ideas, such as security, excitement, or hope.

It is important for you to recognize the difference between countable and uncountable nouns when you come across such key words as much and many.

He has seen *much foreign films.
He didn't have *many fun at the movies.

In the first example, much is incorrect because films is countable. This sentence should say many foreign films. In the second example, many is incorrect because fun is uncountable. This sentence should say much fun.

The following chart lists the key words that indicate to you whether a noun should be countable or uncountable:

KEY WORDS FOR COUNTABLE AND UNCOUNTABLE NOUNS
For Countable Nouns	many	number	few	fewer
For Uncountable Nouns	much	amount	little	less

EXERCISE 40: Each of the following sentences contains at least one key word to tell you if a noun should be countable or uncountable. Circle the key words. Draw arrows to the nouns they describe. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. He received (little) notice that the bill would have to be paid in full.

I 2. The police had (few) opportunities to catch the thief who had committed a large (amount) of crimes.

____ 3. You will have fewer problems with your income taxes if you get professional help.

____ 8. The less time you take on the assignment, the less pages you will complete.

____ 9. A few soldiers who had been in heavy combat were brought back for a little rest.

____ 10. It is better to go shopping in the late evening because there are less people in the market, and you can accomplish a number of tasks in a short period of time.

SKILL 41: RECOGNIZE IRREGULAR PLURALS OF NOUNS

Many nouns in English have irregular plurals, and these irregular forms can cause confusion in written expression questions on the TOEFL test. The irregular forms that are the most problematic are plural forms that do not end in s.

Different criteria was* used to evaluate the performers.

In this example the plural noun criteria looks singular because it does not end in s; you might incorrectly assume that it is singular because there is no final s. However, criteria is a plural noun, so the singular verb was used is incorrect. The verb should be the plural form were used.

The following chart lists the irregular plurals that you should become familiar with:

IRREGULAR PLURALS
Vowel change	man / men woman / women	foot / feet tooth / teeth	goose / geese mouse / mice
Add -EN	child / children	ox / oxen
Same as singular	deer / deer fish / fish	salmon / salmon sheep / sheep	trout / trout
-IS ⟶ -ES	analysis / analyses axis / axes crisis / crises	diagnosis / diagnoses hypothesis / hypotheses parenthesis / parentheses	synthesis / syntheses thesis / theses
Ends in -A	bacterium / bacteria curriculum / curricula	datum / data phenomenon / phenomena	criterion / criteria
-US ⟶ -I	alumnus / alumni bacillus / bacilli cactus / cacti	fungus / fungi nucleus / nuclei radius / radii	stimulus / stimuli syllabus / syllabi

NOTE: Additional exercises to practice these irregular plurals of nouns appear in Appendix H at the back of the text. You may want to complete these exercises before you begin Exercise 41.

EXERCISE 41: Each of the following sentences contains at least one noun with an irregular plural. Circle the nouns with irregular plurals. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

I 1. (Parentheses) is needed around that expression.

C 2. He wants to go on a fishing trip this weekend because he has heard that the (fish) are running.

____ 3. The syllabi for the courses is included in the packet of materials.

____ 8. The teeth in the back of his mouth needs to be capped.

____ 9. The fungi has spread throughout the garden.

____ 10. The sheepdog is chasing after the sheep which are heading over the hill.

SKILL 42: DISTINGUISH THE PERSON FROM THE THING

Nouns in English can refer to persons or things. Sometimes in written expression questions on the TOEFL test the person is used in place of the thing, or the thing is used in place of the person.

Ralph Nader is an *authorization in the field of consumer affairs.
There are many job opportunities in *accountant.

In the first example, authorization is incorrect because authorization is a thing and Ralph Nader is a person. The person authority should be used in this sentence. In the second example, accountant is incorrect because accountant is a person and the field in which an accountant works is accounting. The thing accounting should be used in this sentence.

The following chart outlines what you should remember about the person or thing:

PERSON OR THING
It is common to confuse a person with a thing in written expression questions on the TOEFL test.

EXERCISE 42: Some of the following sentences contain incorrectly used persons or things. Circle the incorrectly used words. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

I 1. In the evening he relaxes in front of the fire and writes long (poets.)

C 2. Service in the restaurant was slow because one cook had called in sick.

____ 3. The sculpture worked from sunrise until sunset on his new project.

PROBLEMS WITH PRONOUNS

Pronouns are words, such as he, she, or it, that take the place of nouns. When you see a pronoun in written expression questions on the TOEFL test, you need to check that it serves the correct function in the sentence (as a subject or object, for example) and that it agrees with the noun it is replacing. The following pronoun problems are the most common on the TOEFL test: (1) distinguishing subject and object pronouns, (2) distinguishing possessive pronouns and possessive adjectives, and (3) checking pronoun reference for agreement.

SKILL 43: DISTINGUISH SUBJECT AND OBJECT PRONOUNS

Subject and object pronouns can be confused on the TOEFL test, so you should be able to recognize these two types of pronouns:

SUBJECT	OBJECT
I	me
you	you
he	him
she	her
it	it
we	us
they	them

A subject pronoun is used as the subject of a verb. An object pronoun can be used as the object of a verb or the object of a preposition. Compare the following two sentences.

Sally gave the book to John.
She gave it to him.

In the second sentence the subject pronoun she is replacing the noun Sally. The object of the verb it is replacing the noun book, and the object of the preposition him is replacing the noun John.

The following are examples of the types of subject or object pronoun errors that you might see on the TOEFL test.

*Him and the girl are going shopping.
The gift was intended for you and *I.

In the first example, the object pronoun him is incorrect because this pronoun serves as the subject of the sentence. The object pronoun him should be changed to the subject pronoun he. It can be difficult to recognize that him is the subject because the verb are has a double subject, him and girl. In the second example, the subject pronoun I is incorrect because this pronoun serves as the object of the preposition for. The subject pronoun I should be changed to the object pronoun me. It can be difficult to recognize that I is the object of the preposition for because the preposition for has two objects: the correct object you and the incorrect object I.

EXERCISE 43: Each of the following sentences contains at least one subject or object pronoun. Circle the pronouns. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. The worst problem with (it) is that (he) cannot afford (it.)

I 2. (They) saw Steve and (I) at the movies last night after class.

____ 3. Perhaps you would like to go to the seminar with they and their friends.

____ 4. The mother took her son to the doctor's office because he was feeling sick.

____ 5. I did not know that you and her were working together on the project.

____ 6. She did not buy the sweater because it had a small hole in it.

____ 7. The man leading the seminar gave me all the information I needed to make a decision.

____ 8. The cords connecting the computer to its printer need to be replaced before them wear down.

____ 9. He is going to the party with you and me if you do not mind.

____ 10. You and her ought to return the books to the library because they are already overdue.

SKILL 44: DISTINGUISH POSSESSIVE ADJECTIVES AND PRONOUNS

Possessive adjectives and pronouns both show who or what "owns" a noun. However, possessive adjectives and possessive pronouns do not have the same function, and these two kinds of possessives can be confused on the TOEFL test. A possessive adjective describes a noun: it must be accompanied by a noun. A possessive pronoun takes the place of a noun: it cannot be accompanied by a noun.

They lent me their book.
ADJECTIVE

They lent me theirs.
PRONOUN

Notice that in the first example the possessive adjective their is accompanied by the noun book. In the second example the possessive pronoun theirs is not accompanied by a noun.

These examples show the types of errors that are possible with possessive adjectives and possessive pronouns on the TOEFL test.

Each morning they read *theirs newspapers.
Could you give me *your?

In the first example, the possessive pronoun theirs is incorrect because it is accompanied by the noun newspapers, and a possessive pronoun cannot be accompanied by a noun. The possessive adjective their is needed in the first example. In the second example, the possessive adjective your is incorrect because it is not accompanied by a noun, and a possessive adjective must be accompanied by a noun. The possessive pronoun yours is needed in the second example.

The following chart outlines the possessives and their uses:

POSSESSIVE ADJECTIVES	POSSESSIVE PRONOUNS
my	mine
your	yours
his	his her	hers
its	—
our	ours
their	theirs
must be accompanied by a noun	cannot be accompanied by a noun

EXERCISE 44: Each of the following sentences contains at least one possessive pronoun or adjective. Circle the possessives in these sentences. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

I 1. If she borrows (your) coat, then you should be able to borrow (her.)

C 2. Each pot and pan in (her) kitchen has (its) own place on the shelf.

____ 3. Mary and Mark invited theirs parents to see their new apartment.

____ 4. When my roommate paid her half of the rent, I paid mine.

____ 9. She worked all day cooking food and making decorations for her son's birthday party.

____ 10. The weather in the mountains this weekend will be extremely cold, so please take yours heavy jackets.

SKILL 45: CHECK PRONOUN REFERENCE FOR AGREEMENT

After you have checked that the subject and object pronouns and the possessives are used correctly, you should also check each of these pronouns and possessives for agreement. The following are examples of errors of this type that you might find on the TOEFL test:

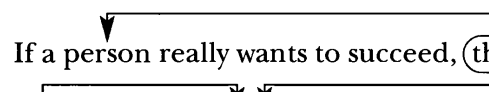

The boys will cause trouble if you let *him.
Everyone must give *their name.

In the first example, the singular pronoun him is incorrect because it refers to the plural noun boys. This pronoun should be replaced with the plural pronoun them. In the second example, the plural possessive adjective their is incorrect because it refers to the singular everyone. This adjective should be replaced with the singular his or his or her.

The following chart outlines what you should remember about checking pronoun reference:

PRONOUN AGREEMENT
1. Be sure that every pronoun and possessive agrees with the noun it refers to.
2. You generally check back in the sentence for agreement.

EXERCISE 45: Each of the following sentences contains at least one pronoun or possessive. Circle the pronouns and possessives. Draw arrows to the nouns they refer to. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

I 1. If a person really wants to succeed, (they) must always work hard.

C 2. If you see the students from the math class, could you return (their) exam papers to (them?)

____ 3. Some friends and I went to see a movie, and afterwards we wrote a critique about them.

____ 4. If you have a problem, you are welcome to discuss it with me before you try to resolve them.

PROBLEMS WITH ADJECTIVES AND ADVERBS

Many different problems with adjectives and adverbs are possible in written expression questions on the TOEFL test. To identify these problems, you must first be able to recognize adjectives and adverbs.

Often adverbs are formed by adding -ly to adjectives, and these -ly adverbs are very easy to recognize. The following examples show adverbs that are formed by adding -ly to adjectives:

ADJECTIVE	ADVERB
recent	recently
public	publicly
evident	evidently

However, there are many adverbs in English that do not end in -ly. These adverbs can be recognized from their meanings. They can describe when something happens (often, soon, later), how something happens (fast, hard, well), or where something happens (here, there, nowhere).

There are three skills involving adjectives and adverbs that will help you on written expression questions on the TOEFL test: (1) knowing when to use adjectives and adverbs, (2) using adjectives rather than adverbs after linking verbs, and (3) positioning adjectives and adverbs correctly.

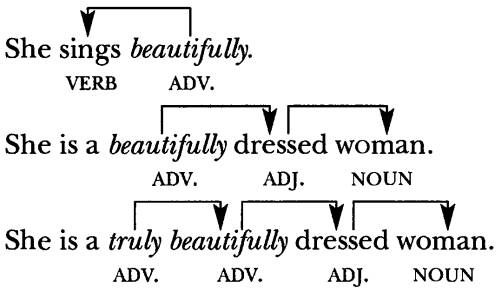

SKILL 46: USE BASIC ADJECTIVES AND ADVERBS CORRECTLY

Sometimes in written expression questions on the TOEFL test, adjectives are used in place of adverbs, or adverbs are used in place of adjectives. Adjectives and adverbs have very different uses. Adjectives have only one job: they describe nouns or pronouns.

In the first example, the adjective beautiful describes the noun woman. In the second example, the adjective beautiful describes the pronoun she.

Adverbs do three different things. They describe verbs, adjectives, or other adverbs.

In the first example, the adverb beautifully describes the verb sings. In the second example, the adverb beautifully describes the adjective dressed (which describes the noun woman). In the third example, the adverb truly describes the adverb beautifully, which describes the adjective dressed (which describes the noun woman).

The following are examples of incorrect sentences as they might appear on the TOEFL test.

In the first example, the adverb largely is incorrect because the adjective large is needed to describe the noun table. In the second example, the adjective quick is incorrect because the adverb quickly is needed to describe the verb talked. In the last example, the adjective extreme is incorrect because the adverb extremely is needed to describe the adjective long.

The following chart outlines the important information that you should remember about the basic use of adjectives and adverbs:

BASIC USE OF ADJECTIVES AND ADVERBS
ADJECTIVES	Adjectives describe nouns or pronouns.
ADVERBS	Adverbs describe verbs, adjectives, or other adverbs.

EXERCISE 46: Each of the following sentences has at least one adjective or adverb. Circle the adjectives and adverbs, and label them. Draw arrows to the words they describe. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

____ 3. He was driving an expensively sports car.

____ 4. There is a special program on television this evening.

____ 5. She was chosen for the leading part because she sings so well.

____ 6. The car was not complete ready at 3:00.

____ 8. Points will be subtracted for each incorrect answered question.

____ 9. The production manager quietly requested a completely report of the terribly incident.

____ 10. The children finished their homework quickly so that they could watch television.

SKILL 47: USE ADJECTIVES AFTER LINKING VERBS

Generally an adverb rather than an adjective will come directly after a verb because the adverb is describing the verb.

In this example, the verb spoke is followed by the adverb nicely. This adverb describes the verb spoke.

However, you must be very careful if the verb is a linking verb. A linking verb is followed by an adjective rather than an adverb.

She looks nice.
SUB. ADJ.

In this example, the linking verb looks is followed by the adjective nice. This adjective describes the subject she.

You should be sure to use an adjective rather than an adverb after a linking verb. Be careful, however, because the adjective that goes with the linking verb does not always directly follow the linking verb.

He seems unusually nice.
SUB. ADV. ADJ.

In this example, the adjective nice, which describes the subject he, is itself described by the adverb unusually. From this example, you should notice that it is possible to have an adverb directly after a linking verb, but only if the adverb describes an adjective that follows.

The following chart lists commonly used linking verbs and outlines the different uses of adjectives and adverbs after regular verbs and linking verbs:

ADJECTIVES AND ADVERBS AFTER VERBS
(subject) + (regular verb) + (adverb) A regular verb is followed by an adverb. The adverb describes the verb.
(subject) + (linking verb) + (adjective) A linking verb is followed by an adjective. The adjective describes the subject.
(subject) + (linking verb) + (adverb) + (adjective) It is possible that a linking verb is followed by an adverb and an adjective. The adverb describes the adjective, and the adjective describes the subject.
LINKING VERBS:	appear	feel	seem be	look	smell
	become	prove	taste

EXERCISE 47: Each of the following sentences contains at least one adjective or adverb. Circle the adjectives and adverbs, and label them. Draw arrows to the words they describe. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

I 1. The parents seem (angrily) about the child's report card.
ADV.

C 2. The speaker talked (knowingly) about (prehistoric) fossils.
ADV. ADJ.

____ 3. After she drank the lemonade, the cake tasted too sweetly to her.

_____ 4. Throughout dinner we were bored because he spoke incessantly.

_____ 5. Sam felt terribly depressed after the accident.

_____ 6. The neighbor appeared calm in spite of the fact that his house was on fire.

_____ 8. Marla jumped up quick when she heard the gunshot.

_____ 9. Even though we were not really hungry, the food smelled delicious.

_____ 10. The history course that I took last semester proved more difficultly than I had expected.

SKILL 48: POSITION ADJECTIVES AND ADVERBS CORRECTLY

Adjectives and adverbs can appear in incorrect positions in written expression questions on the TOEFL test. There are two common errors of this type that you should beware of: (1) the position of adjectives with the nouns they describe, and (2) the position of adverbs with objects.

In English it is correct to place a one-word adjective in front of the noun it describes. On the TOEFL test, however, an incorrect sentence might have an adjective after the noun it describes.

The information *important is on the first page.
NOUN ADJ.

In this example, the adjective important should come before the noun information because important describes information.

A second problem you should be aware of is the position of adverbs with objects of verbs. When a verb has an object, an adverb describing the verb should not come between the verb and its object.

He has taken *recently an English course.
ADV. OBJECT

This example is incorrect because the adverb recently comes between the verb has taken and its object an English course. There are many possible corrections for this sentence.

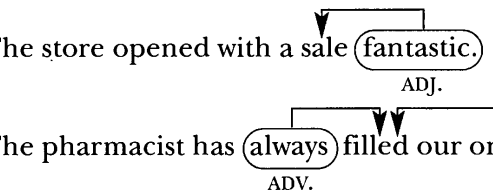

Recently he has taken an English course.
He has recently taken an English course.
He has taken an English course recently.

You can see from these examples that there are many possible correct positions for the adverb. What is important for you to remember is that an adverb that describes a verb cannot come between the verb and its object.

The following chart outlines the key points that you should remember about the position of adjectives and adverbs:

THE POSITION OF ADJECTIVES AND ADVERBS
ADJECTIVES	A one-word adjective comes before the noun it describes. It does not come directly after.
ADVERBS	An adverb can appear in many positions. It cannot be used between a verb and its object.

EXERCISE 48: Each of the following sentences contains at least one adjective or adverb. Circle the adjectives and adverbs, and label them. Draw arrows to the words they describe. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

I 1. The store opened with a sale (fantastic.)
ADJ.

C 2. The pharmacist has (always) filled our order (quickly.)
ADV. ADV.

MORE PROBLEMS WITH ADJECTIVES

The previous section dealt with various problems related to both adjectives and adverbs. This section deals with a few problems that are related only to adjectives: (1) -ly adjectives, (2) predicate adjectives, and (3) -ed and -ing adjectives.

SKILL 49: RECOGNIZE -LY ADJECTIVES

Generally when a word ends in -ly in English, it is an adverb. However, there are a few words ending in -ly that are adjectives, and these -ly adjectives can cause confusion in written expression questions on the TOEFL test.

The manager turned in his weekly report.
ADJ. NOUN

This example is correct, but it appears to be incorrect; it appears that there is an -ly adverb in front of the noun report. However, weekly is an adjective that describes the noun report.

The following chart lists common -ly adjectives that can appear in English:

-LY ADJECTIVES
costly	likely	daily	quarterly	northerly
early	lively	hourly	weekly	easterly
friendly	lonely	monthly	yearly	southerly
kindly	manly	nightly	lovely	westerly

EXERCISE 49: Each of the following sentences contains at least one adjective or adverb ending in -ly. Circle the -ly words, and label them as either adjectives or adverbs. Draw arrows to the words they describe. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. Federal taxes are (yearly) taxes which must be paid every April.
ADJ.

I 2. At the fashion show, the new (seasonally) fashions will be shown.
ADV.

____ 3. Do you want to go to the early movie or the lately movie?

____ 4. She offered me some friendly advice about how to deal with the terribly problem.

____ 5. The quarterly reports need to be turned in at the next weekly meeting.

____ 6. He did not have a manly reaction to the negatively comments.

____ 7. The likely outcome of the purchase of the costly car is that he will not be able to pay his monthly bills.

____ 8. The days she spent at the beach house were lonely and solitarily.

____ 9. She takes her daily medication on a regularly schedule.

____ 10. The kindly neighbor paid hourly visits to her unhealthily friend.

SKILL 50: USE PREDICATE ADJECTIVES CORRECTLY

Certain adjectives appear only in the predicate of the sentence; that is, they appear after a linking verb such as be, and they cannot appear directly in front of the nouns that they describe.

The snake on the rock was alive.
The *alive snake was lying on the rock.

In the first example, the predicate adjective alive is used correctly after the linking verb was to describe the subject snake. In the second example, the predicate adjective alive is used incorrectly in front of the noun snake. In this position, the adjective live should be used.

The following chart lists some common predicate adjectives and the corresponding forms that can be used in front of the noun:

PREDICATE ADJECTIVES
PREDICATE ADJECTIVES	FORMS USED IN FRONT OF A NOUN alike	like, similar alive	live, living
alone	lone
afraid	frightened
asleep	sleeping
A predicate adjective appears after a linking verb such as be. It cannot appear directly in front of the noun that it describes.

EXERCISE 50: Each of the following sentences contains a predicate adjective or its related form. Circle the predicate adjectives or related forms. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. The two brothers do not look at all (alike.)

I 2. My friend brought the (alive) lobster to my house and expected me to cook it.

____ 3. Are you going to be lone in the house tonight?

____ 4. The afraid child cried for his mother.

____ 5. Everyone else was asleep by the time I arrived home.

____ 6. We completed our two projects in a like manner.

____ 7. All of the crash victims were alive when they were found.

____ 8. She tried to walk quietly by the asleep dogs without waking them.

_____ 9. Were you feeling afraid when you heard the noise?

_____ 10. According to the report, the president was shot by an alone gunman.

SKILL 51: USE -ED AND -ING ADJECTIVES CORRECTLY

Verb forms ending in -ed and -ing can be used as adjectives. For example, the verbal adjectives cleaned and cleaning come from the verb to clean.

The woman cleans the car.
VERB

The cleaning woman worked on the car.
ADJECTIVE

The woman put the cleaned car back in the garage.
ADJECTIVE

In the first example, cleans is the verb of the sentence. In the second example, cleaning is a verbal adjective describing woman. In the third example, cleaned is a verbal adjective describing car.

Verbal adjectives ending in -ed and -ing can be confused in written expression questions on the TOEFL test.

The *cleaning car...
The *cleaned woman...

The difference between an -ed and an -ing adjective is similar to the difference between the active and the passive (see Skills 37 and 38). An -ing adjective (like the active) means that the noun it describes is doing the action. The above example about the cleaning car is not correct because a car cannot do the action of cleaning: you cannot say that a car cleans itself. An -ed adjective (like the passive) means that the noun it describes is receiving the action from the verb. The above example about the cleaned woman is not correct because in this example a woman does not receive the action of the verb clean: this sentence does not mean that someone cleaned the woman.

The following chart outlines the key information that you should remember about -ed and -ing adjectives:

-ED AND -ING ADJECTIVES
TYPE	MEANING	USE	EXAMPLE
-ING	active	It does the action of the verb.	. . . the happily playing children . . . (The children play.)
-ED	passive	It receives the action of the verb.	. . . the frequently played record . . . (Someone plays the record.)

EXERCISE 51: Each of the following sentences contains either an -ed or an -ing verbal adjective. Circle the verbal adjectives. Draw arrows to the words they describe. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

I 1. The teacher gave a quiz on the just (completing) lesson.

C 2. There is a (fascinating) movie at the theater tonight.

____ 3. They thought that it had been a very satisfied dinner.

____ 4. The empty bottles are to the left, and the filling bottles are to the right.

____ 5. For lunch at the restaurant she ordered a mixed salad.

____ 6. The students thought that it was an interesting assignment.

____ 7. The shoppers were impressed by the reducing prices.

____ 8. He can't afford to take long vacations to exotic places because he is a worked man.

____ 9. I recently received several annoying phone calls from the insurance agent.

____ 10. Today the bookkeeper will work on the unpaying bills.

EXERCISE (Skills 49–51): Circle the adjectives in each of the following sentences. Draw arrows to the nouns or pronouns they describe. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

____ 1. Her kindly words of thanks made me feel appreciating.

PROBLEMS WITH ARTICLES

Articles are very difficult to learn because there are many rules, many exceptions, and many special cases. It is possible, however, to learn a few rules that will help you to use articles correctly much of the time.

Nouns in English can be either countable or uncountable. If a noun is countable, it must be either singular or plural. In addition to these general types of nouns, there are two types of articles: definite (specific) and indefinite (general).

ARTICLES	COUNTABLE SINGULAR NOUNS	COUNTABLE PLURAL NOUNS	UNCOUNTABLE NOUNS
INDEFINITE (General)	a dollar an apple	_____ dollars _____ apples	_____ money _____ juice
DEFINITE (Specific)	the dollar the apple	the dollars the apples	the money the juice

SKILL 52: USE ARTICLES WITH SINGULAR NOUNS

You can see from the chart that if a noun is either countable plural or uncountable, it is possible to have either the definite article the or no article (indefinite). With all countable singular nouns, however, you must have an article (unless you have another determiner such as my or each).

I have money. (uncountable — no article needed)
I have books. (countable plural — no article needed)
I have a book. (countable singular — article needed)

The following chart outlines the key information that you should remember about articles with singular nouns:

ARTICLES WITH SINGULAR NOUNS
A singular noun must have an article (a, an, the) or some other determiner such as my or each. (A plural noun or an uncountable noun may or may not have an article.)

EXERCISE 52: The following sentences contain different types of nouns. Circle only the countable singular nouns. Mark where articles (or determiners) have been omitted. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

I 1. She is taking ^V (trip) with friends.

C 2. In my (yard) there are flowers, trees, and grass.

_____ 3. The manager sent memo to his employees.

_____ 4. There is car in front of the building.

_____ 5. The child and his friends are having milk and cookies.

_____ 6. She is studying to be an actress in films.

_____ 7. My neighbor was arrested for throwing rocks through windows.

_____ 8. We have machinery that prints ten pages each minute.

_____ 9. Teacher has many students during a semester.

_____ 10. Can you heat water for tea?

SKILL 53: DISTINGUISH A AND AN

The basic difference between a and an is that a is used in front of consonants and an is used in front of vowels (a, e, i, o, u):

a book	an orange
a man	an illness
a page	an automobile

There are two exceptions to this rule: u and h. When u is pronounced like the consonant y (as in usual), it is preceded by the article a rather than an. When h is not pronounced (as in honor), it is preceded by the article an rather than a. Pronounce the following examples:

a university	an unhappy man	a hospital	an honor
a unit	an understanding	a heart	an herb

The following chart outlines the key information about the use of a and an:

A AND AN
A	A is used in front of a singular noun with a consonant sound.
AN	An is used in front of a singular noun with a vowel sound.
Be careful of nouns beginning with H or U. They may have a vowel or a consonant sound.

EXERCISE 53: Each of the following sentences contains a or an. Circle each a or an. Underline the beginning of the word that directly follows. Pronounce the word. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

I 1. The dishwasher quit his job because he was making only four dollars (a) hour.

C 2. It was (an) unexpected disappointment to receive (a) rejection letter from the university.

_____ 3. It is raining, so you should bring a umbrella.

_____ 4. He bought a half gallon of milk and a box of a hundred envelopes.

_____ 5. An objection was raised because it was such a unacceptable idea.

_____ 6. The workers at the plant do not belong to a union.

_____ 7. The police officer was not wearing an uniform when she arrested the suspect.

_____ 8. If you do not give me a hand, finishing the project on time will be an impossibility.

_____ 9. She was upset when a honest mistake was made.

_____ 10. She opened a account at a local department store.

SKILL 54: MAKE ARTICLES AGREE WITH NOUNS

The definite article (the) is used for both singular and plural nouns, so agreement is not a problem with the definite article. However, because the use of the indefinite article is different for singular and plural nouns, you must be careful of agreement between the indefinite article and the noun. One very common agreement error is to use the singular indefinite article (a or an) with a plural noun.

He saw *a new movies.
They traveled to *a nearby mountains.
Do you have *an*other* books?

In these examples, you should not have a or an because the nouns are plural. The following sentences are possible corrections of the sentences above.

He saw a new movie.	(singular)
He saw new movies.	(plural)
They traveled to a nearby mountain.	(singular)
They traveled to nearby mountains.	(plural)
Do you have another book?	(singular)
Do you have other books?	(plural)

The following chart states the key point for you to remember about the agreement of articles with nouns:

AGREEMENT OF ARTICLES WITH NOUNS
You should never use a or an with a plural noun.

EXERCISE 54: Each of the following sentences contains a or an. Circle each a or an. Draw an arrow to the noun it describes. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. She went to school in (a) local community.

I 2. The doctor used (an) other pills.

_____ 3. It is necessary to have a farm or land of your own.

_____ 4. He must contact a members of the club.

____ 5. You will need a pen or a pencil.

____ 6. He is responsible for bringing a number of items.

____ 7. You must write a report on a subjects of your choice.

____ 8. They crossed through several forests and a stream.

____ 9. There will be another important lessons tomorrow.

____ 10. He could not give me a good reasons for what he did.

SKILL 55: DISTINGUISH SPECIFIC AND GENERAL IDEAS

With countable singular nouns it is possible to use either the definite or the indefinite article, but they have different meanings. The definite article is used to refer to one specific noun.

Tom will bring the book tomorrow.
(There is one specific book that Tom will bring tomorrow.)

He will arrive on the first Tuesday in July.
(There is only one first Tuesday in July.)

He sailed on the Pacific Ocean.
(There is only one Pacific Ocean.)

The indefinite article is used when the noun could be one of several different nouns.

Tom will bring a book tomorrow.
(Tom will bring any one book.)

He will arrive on a Tuesday in July.
(He will arrive on one of four Tuesdays in July.)

He sailed on an ocean.
(He sailed on any one of the world's oceans.)

The following chart outlines the key information that you should understand about specific and general ideas:

SPECIFIC AND GENERAL IDEAS
ARTICLE	MEANING	USES
A or AN	general idea	Use when there are many, and you do not know which one it is. Use when there are many, and you do not care which one it is.
THE	specific idea	Use when it is the only one. Use when there are many, and you know which one it is.

EXERCISE 55: Each of the following sentences contains one or more articles. Circle the articles. Draw arrows to the nouns they describe. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

I 1. He took (a) trip on (a) Snake River.

C 2. I'll meet you at (the) library later.

____ 3. The ball hit a child on a head.

____ 4. He had a best grade in the class on the exam.

PROBLEMS WITH PREPOSITIONS

Prepositions can be used in two ways: in a literal way and in an idiomatic way. In the literal use, the preposition means exactly what you expect.

The boy ran up the hill.
She went in the house.

In the first example, the preposition up means that the boy went in the direction up rather than down. In the second example, the preposition in means that she went into rather than out of the house.

In the idiomatic use, which is what appears most often on the TOEFL test, the preposition appears in an idiomatic expression; that is, its meaning in this expression has nothing to do with the literal meaning.

I call up my friend.
He succeeded in passing the course.

In the first example, the word up has nothing to do with the direction up. To call up someone means to telephone someone. In the second example, the word in has nothing to do with the meaning of into or inside; it is simply idiomatic that the word in is used after the verb succeed.

It is impossible to list all potential idiomatic expressions with their prepositions because there are so many expressions that could appear on the TOEFL test. However, in this chapter you can practice recognizing problems with prepositions in TOEFL-type questions. Then, when you are working in written expression questions on the TOEFL test, you should be aware that idiomatic errors with prepositions are common in that section. There are two common types of problems with prepositions that you should expect: (1) incorrect prepositions and (2) omitted prepositions.

SKILL 56: RECOGNIZE INCORRECT PREPOSITIONS

Sometimes an incorrect preposition is given in a sentence in written expression questions on the TOEFL test.

The game was called *on because of rain.
I knew I could count *in you to do a good job.

The first example should say that the game was called off because of rain. The expression called off means canceled, and that is the meaning that makes sense in this sentence. To call on someone is to visit someone, and this meaning does not make sense in this example. In the second example, it is not correct in English to count in someone. The correct expression is to count on someone.

EXERCISE 56: Each of the following sentences contains at least one preposition. Circle the prepositions. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. (After) school many students participate (in) sports.

I 2. I know I can rely (in) you to be here (on) time.

____ 3. If you need more light to read, turn on the lamp next to you.

____ 4. Parents always try to bring at their children to be thoughtful.

____ 8. Smoking is forbidden, so you should put out your cigarette.

____ 9. Failure to pass the test will result to the loss of your license.

____ 10. It is unlawful for parolees to associate with known felons.

SKILL 57: RECOGNIZE WHEN PREPOSITIONS HAVE BEEN OMITTED

Sometimes a necessary preposition has been omitted from a sentence in written expression questions on the TOEFL test.

Can you *wait me after the game?
I *plan attending the meeting.

The first example is incorrect because it is necessary to say wait for me. The second example is incorrect because it is necessary to say plan on attending.

EXERCISE 57: Prepositions have been omitted in some of the following sentences. Mark where prepositions have been omitted. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

I 1. If you take this job, it will be necessary to deal ^ other departments.

PROBLEMS WITH USAGE

In English certain groups of words have similar uses, and these words are sometimes confused in written expression questions on the TOEFL test. Although various usage problems are possible on the TOEFL test, the following problems are the most common: (1) when to use make and do; (2) when to use like, unlike, and alike; and (3) when to use other, another, and others.

SKILL 58: DISTINGUISH MAKE AND DO

Make and do can be confused in English because their meanings are so similar. Since the difference between make and do is tested on the TOEFL test, you should learn to distinguish them.

Make often has the idea of creating or constructing. The following expressions show some of the possible uses of make:

She likes to make her own clothes.
Would you like to make a cake for dessert?
If you make a mistake, you should correct it.
He was unable to make a response to the threat.

Do often has the idea of completing or performing. The following expressions show some of the possible uses of do:

This morning she did all the dishes.
The students are doing the assignments.
The janitors did the work they were assigned.
You can do your laundry at the laundromat.

These are only some of the uses of make and do. Many uses of make and do are idiomatic and therefore difficult to classify.

EXERCISE 58: Each of the following sentences contains make or do. Circle make or do. Draw arrows to the nouns that complete the expressions. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

I 1. The biology student did several mistakes in the lab report.

C 2. I hope that you will be able to do me a favor this afternoon.

____ 3. No matter what job she has, she always makes her best.

____ 4. The runner did a strong effort to increase her speed in the mile race.

____ 9. It is a pleasure to work with someone who always makes the right thing.

____ 10. If you make a good impression at your job interview, you will get the job.

SKILL 59: DISTINGUISH LIKE, ALIKE, AND UNLIKE

Like, alike, and unlike are easily confused because they look so similar and they have many different uses. There are several structures with like, alike, and unlike that you should be familiar with.

The first structures you should already be familiar with are the adjectives alike and like (see Skill 50). Study the use of alike and like in the following examples.

John and Tom are alike.
John and Tom worked in a like manner.

In both these examples, alike and like are adjectives that mean similar. In the first example, alike is a predicate adjective describing John and Tom. Because alike is a predicate adjective, it can only be used after a linking verb such as are. In the second example, like is the adjective form that is used immediately before the noun manner.

The next structures you should be familiar with are the prepositions like and unlike, which have opposite meanings. Because they are prepositions, they must be followed by objects.

John is (like Tom).
John is (unlike Tom).

In the first example, the preposition like is followed by the object Tom. It means that Tom and John are similar. In the second example, the preposition unlike is followed by the object Tom. It means that Tom and John are not similar.

The prepositions like and unlike can also be used at the beginning of a sentence.

(Like Tom), John is tall.

In the first example, the preposition like is followed by the object Tom. It means that Tom is tall. In the second example, the preposition unlike is followed by the object Tom. It means that Tom is not tall.

The following chart outlines the structures and meanings of sentences with like, alike, and unlike:

LIKE, ALIKE, AND UNLIKE
	GRAMMAR	MEANING	USE
like	adjective	similar	As an adjective, like is used before a noun.
alike	adjective	similar	As an adjective, alike is used after a linking verb.
like	preposition	similar	Both prepositions are followed by objects. They can both be used in many positions, including at the beginning of the sentence.
unlike	preposition	different

EXERCISE 59: Each of the following sentences contains like, alike, or unlike. Circle the like words. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

I 1. The two routes you have chosen for the trip are (like.)

C 2. The science books this semester are (like) the books used last semester.

____ 3. Alike the restaurant where we usually eat, this new restaurant has early-bird specials.

____ 9. Any further work done in a like fashion will be rejected.

____ 10. It is unfortunate that the covers for this year's and last year's albums are so alike.

SKILL 60: DISTINGUISH OTHER, ANOTHER, AND OTHERS

Other, another, and others are very easy to confuse. To decide how to use each of them correctly, you must consider three things: (1) if it is singular or plural, (2) if it is definite (the) or indefinite (a, an), and (3) if it is an adjective (it appears with a noun) or if it is a pronoun (it appears by itself).

	SINGULAR	PLURAL
INDEFINITE	I have another book. (ADJ) I have another. (PRO)	I have other books. (ADJ) I have others. (PRO)
DEFINITE	I have the other book. (ADJ) I have the other. (PRO)	I have the other books. (ADJ) I have the others. (PRO)

Notice that you use another only to refer to an indefinite, singular idea. Others is used only as a plural pronoun (not accompanied by a noun). In all other cases, other is correct.

EXERCISE 60: Each of the following sentences contains other, another, or others. Circle other, another, or others. Then indicate if the sentences are correct (C) or incorrect (I).

C 1. It is essential to complete the first program before working on the (others.)

STRUCTURE POST-TEST (Paper)

SECTION 2
STRUCTURE AND WRITTEN EXPRESSION

Time—25 minutes
(including the reading of the directions)
Now set your clock for 25 minutes.

This section is designed to measure your ability to recognize language that is appropriate for standard written English. There are two types of questions in this section, with special directions for each type.

Structure

Directions: Questions 1–15 are incomplete sentences. Beneath each sentence you will see four words or phrases, marked (A), (B), (C), and (D). Choose the one word or phrase that best completes the sentence. Then, on your answer sheet, find the number of the question and fill in the space that corresponds to the letter of the answer you have chosen. Fill in the space so that the letter inside the oval cannot be seen.

Look at the following examples.

Example I

The president _____ the election by a landslide.

(A) won
(B) he won
(C) yesterday
(D) fortunately

Sample Answer

(A) ● (B) (C) (D)

The sentence should read, "The president won the election by a landslide." Therefore, you should choose (A).

Example II

When _____ the conference?

(A) the doctor attended
(B) did the doctor attend
